Service Description

Summary

Valto's Azure Envisioning Workshop helps organisations understand how Azure services can support infrastructure, AI, automation, security, and identity needs. Through structured discovery and expert guidance, we define a clear Azure roadmap aligned to business, technical, and security objectives.

Service Details

The Azure Envisioning Workshop is a high-level engagement designed to help organisations understand how Microsoft Azure can support current and future requirements. Valto works with stakeholders to explore objectives across infrastructure, application hosting, automation, data, AI, security, and identity.

During the workshop, we review Azure capabilities across core areas including IaaS, PaaS, AI services, workflow automation, security, networking, and identity management. We explore how services such as Azure Virtual Machines, Azure AI, Logic Apps, Azure AD, and Azure security tools can be used together to create scalable, secure solutions.

The session combines facilitated discussions, practical examples, and real-world scenarios drawn from delivery experience. This enables stakeholders to understand what is possible, identify high-value opportunities, and assess readiness before committing to implementation.

Following the workshop, Valto provides a summary report outlining opportunities, recommendations, and next steps. This includes a clear roadmap and guidance on how Azure services can be implemented to meet agreed objectives.
