Pricing for Commercial Data Management and Enrichment

Below is our standard pricing for Experian's core Public Sector data management and enrichment services. These data blocks are based on standard permitted use of such data. Pricing is based on a transactional volume driven model. For some use cases, additional data blocks might be required whereby use of more detailed credit data is permitted depending on eligibility for such data. To determine whether use of this data is permitted under the governing rules for such data, Experian will be able to advise on these edge cases upon request.

All the prices quoted within this document exclude VAT.

Standard Set up Fees

	Cost	What this covers
Set up fee	Standard £2,000	This will depend on the complexity of the options being taken but will always include the set-up and monthly provisioning of data
