- (b) The provisions of Clause 3.4(a) are subject to the Customer paying the Company in full all Contract Charges, following such time the Intellectual Property Rights shall be hold jointly. Each party will hold such rights separately from the other and each may deal with such rights independently and without the consent of the other.

4. CALCULATION AND PAYMENT OF FEES AND EXPENSES

4.1 Charges and Payment

(a) The Customer shall pay the Company the Contract Charges at the daily rates set out in any Work Statement plus Value Added Tax which shall be charged in addition to the Contract Charge. If any Services are commenced without a Work Statement the Contract Charges shall be calculated on the Company's then prevailing standard rate card tariff.

(b) Unless otherwise stated in a Work Order or as agreed between the parties, upon each anniversary of this Agreement the Company may vary the Contract Charges set out in any Work Statement by no more than the rate of change of the Retail Prices Index for the year preceding the anniversary concerned.

(c) In addition to the daily rates set out in Clause 4.1(a) the Customer will reimburse the Company for reasonable travel and hotel expenses incurred by any Consultants in providing the Services.

(d) The Company will maintain accurate records of the time spent by each Consultant.

(e) The Company will invoice the Customer monthly in arrears. Each invoice shall specify the time spent by each Consultant and any expenses. Payment shall be due thirty (30) days following receipt by the Customer of a valid VAT invoice.

4.2 Tax

(a) All sums due to the Company under the Agreement are exclusive of VAT, if any, which shall be charged in addition thereto in accordance with the relevant regulations in force at the time of making the relevant taxable supply and shall be paid by the Customer against receipt from the Company of a valid Value Added Tax invoice in respect thereof.

(b) The Company shall be responsible for and shall account for all its own tax including any income tax, National Insurance contributions and VAT to the relevant tax authorities.

5. CUSTOMER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

5.1 The Customer will provide the Company with such information as it may reasonably need concerning the Customer's operations and answers to queries, decisions and approvals which may be reasonably necessary for the Consultant to undertake the Services. The Customer is responsible for ensuring that such information and answers are accurate and complete.

5.2 The Customer will provide free of charge the following facilities to the Company and its Consultant throughout the Customer's normal business hours and at such other times as the Customer authorises after reasonable prior notice from the Company and/or its Consultant (such authorisation not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed):

- a) access to and use of the Equipment;
- (b) access to the Customer's employees and the Customer's Premises;
- (c) all electric power, lighting, heating and air conditioning at the Customer's Premises reasonably needed by the Consultant to perform the Services;
- (d) to the extent the Consultant needs to work on the Customer's Premises, office space readily accessible to the Equipment which is suitable for this purpose and the provision of normal office services, including first aid, photocopying and telephone, (but excluding any secretarial support, typing and photocopying facilities needed to produce any documentation for which the Consultant is responsible) and such facilities may be used only for the purpose of the Services;
- (e) competent operators for the Equipment.

5.3 The Customer will be responsible for ensuring that the Equipment is properly installed and is sufficient and suitable for its purpose and that any adjustments which may be required are carried out expeditiously. The Customer is responsible at its own expense for the prompt and continuing availability to the Consultant of the Equipment and any other computing facilities to be provided by the Customer in good working order throughout the duration of this Agreement.

5.4 The Customer will ensure that all software other than the Deliverables which is used on the Equipment is either the property of the Customer or legally licensed to the Customer and that the Consultant is permitted to use such software.

5.5 The Company may suspend Services carried out at the Customer's Premises if the Company reasonably believes conditions at the Customer's Premises represent a health or safety hazard to any of the Consultants.

5.6 The Customer acknowledges that if it has asked for or approved the inclusion of any third party software in the Deliverables; the Customer shall be responsible, unless the Company has otherwise specifically agreed in writing, for the cost of and for obtaining the necessary licence(s) pertaining to that third party software.

6. SKILL AND CARE

The Company warrants that for the term of the Agreement the Services will be performed using reasonable skill and care in a timely and professional manner using appropriately skilled, qualified and experienced personnel. The Services to be provided under this Agreement shall be provided on a time and materials basis only, unless specifically agreed to the contrary in writing signed by a director of the Company. The Company shall not be responsible for providing any Deliverable unless specifically stated in a Work Statement.

7. HOSTING AND MANAGED SERVICES

7.1 For hosting or subscription services involving the Customer's or an end user's access to and/or use of a software, application or website on a server owned by the Company or one of the Company's suppliers or sub-contractors, the Company will make such services available for access or use in accordance with service levels specified in the applicable Work Statement or as otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the parties. However, in each case, the Company's service levels cannot be more onerous on the Company than the applicable service level commitments of its applicable supplier or sub-contractor.

7.2 If the Services and/or Deliverables from the Company under the applicable Work Statement involve using or incorporating a hosting, managed or other such service and/or deliverable (in each case a "Cloud Service") from a "cloud" service or platform provider (a "Cloud Service Provider");

7.2.1 the use of, and access to the Services is subject to the Company continuing to have access to such Cloud Service from the Cloud Service Provider;

7.2.2 a failure, fault, delay or unavailability of any kind in any Cloud Service will be treated as a Force Majeure Event for the purposes of the applicable Work Statement;

7.2.3 The Company will be recorded as Digital Partner of Record for all related Azure Subscriptions (the Company's Microsoft Partner ID (MPN ID) and/or be recognized as the AWS Partner (the Company's AWS Partner ID) for all AWS accounts;

7.2.4 the Customer will comply with all applicable acceptable use and similar flow-down terms from the Cloud Service Provider which the Cloud Services Provider is entitled to directly enforce; and

7.2.5 the Customer will provide such information and co-operation as the Company needs to comply with its obligations owed to the Cloud Service Provider.

7.3 The Customer will be the legal owner of the data within the hosted/managed system that is uploaded by or for the Customer.

7.4 On termination of the applicable Services incorporating the Cloud Service (in addition to other applicable terms in the applicable Work Statement): 7.4.1 The Company will hand over the account to the Customer within 30 (thirty) days or such longer time period expressly specified in the applicable Work Statement.

7.4.2 The Company will transfer the data/account to the Customer using the method recommended by the Cloud Services Provider at the time.

7.5 The Customer will comply with any additional flow-down terms required by the Cloud Service Provider. These will be specified in the applicable Work Statement or as otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the parties.

8. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

8.1 The Customer acknowledges that the Company's obligations and liabilities in respect of the Services are exhaustively defined in this Agreement. The Customer agrees that the express obligations and warranties made by the Company in this Agreement are in lieu of and to the exclusion of any other warranty, condition, term, undertaking or representation of any kind, express or implied, statutory or otherwise relating to anything supplied or services provided under or in connection with this Agreement including (without limitation) as to the condition, quality, performance, merchantability or fitness for the purpose of the Services the Deliverables or any part of them.

8.2 The Customer is responsible for the consequences of any use of the Deliverables. In relation to this Agreement and any obligations, Services or Deliverables the Company will not be liable for any indirect or consequential loss, damage, cost or expense of any kind whatever and however caused, whether arising under contract, tort (including negligence) or otherwise including (without limitation) loss of production loss of or corruption to data loss of profits or of contracts loss of operation time and loss of goodwill or anticipated savings, even if the Company has been advised of their possibility.

8.3 The Company accepts liability for:

- (a) death or injury caused by the negligence of the Company, its employees, agents or sub-contractors in the course of their engagement under this Agreement and damage caused by a defective product within the meaning of the Consumer Protection Act 1987 Part I without limit;
- (b) fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation or any liability which cannot legally be excluded or limited;
- (c) physical damage to or loss of the Customer's tangible property to the extent it results from the negligence of the Company its employees, agents or sub-contractors in the course of their engagement under this Agreement up to the amount of £1,000,000 in respect of each incident or series of connected incidents; and

8.4 In all other cases not falling within clause 8.3 the Company's total liability (whether in contract, tort, including negligence, or otherwise) under or in connection with this Agreement and any other agreement with the Customer relating to the Services or based on any claim for indemnity or contribution will not exceed repayment of Contract Charges paid, one hundred percent (100%) of the total Contract Charges in aggregate, or £1,000,000 (one million pounds), whichever is the lesser.

8.5 The Customer agrees that except as expressly provided in clauses 9, 10 and this clause 8 the Company will not be under any liability of any kind whatever and however caused arising directly or indirectly in connection with Services or Deliverables or any obligation under this Agreement. The Customer will indemnify the Company in respect of any third party claim for any injury, loss, damage or expense occasioned by or arising directly or indirectly from the Customer's possession, operation, use, modification or supply to a third party of the Deliverables and any part of them or Services provided under or in connection with this Agreement except and in so far as the Consultant is liable as expressly provided for in this Agreement.

The Customer acknowledges and agrees that the allocation of risk contained in this clause 8 is reflected in the Contract Charges and is also a recognition of the fact that, inter alia, any Deliverable cannot be tested in every possible combination and therefore the Company does not warrant that the operation of any Software provided (or code or work under taken on Software) will be uninterrupted or error free and it is not within the Company's control as to how and for what purpose the Deliverables are used by the Customer.

The provision of this Clause 8 shall survive termination and/or expiry of this Agreement.

9 CONFIDENTIALITY

9.1 Except to the extent permitted by law, and subject to Clause 8.4, neither party shall disclose any Confidential Information relating to the other party without the other party's prior written consent. This provision shall not apply to any information in the public domain otherwise than in breach of this Agreement and/or information in the possession of the receiving party prior to its disclosure to it in connection with this Agreement and/or information obtained from a third party who is free to divulge the same and/or disclosure of information required by a Court of law or other competent authority.

9.2 Each party shall upon receiving a specific request in writing from the other party deliver up any Confidential Information belonging to the other party (including any and all copies made) to the other party following the termination of the Agreement.

9.3 Either party shall immediately inform the other if it becomes aware of the possession, use or knowledge of any of the Confidential Information by any unauthorised person, whether during or after the term of the Agreement and shall provide such reasonable assistance as is required to deal with such event.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the rest of this clause 10 the Company is authorised to disclose that the Customer is a customer of the Company regarding the Services.

10 TERMINATION

10.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement either party (the "Non-Defaulting Party") may terminate the Agreement by written notice having immediate effect if:

(a) the other (the "Defaulting Party") commits any breach of this Agreement (other than a breach which is capable of remedy within 30 days of written notice of remediable breach) and such breach is not remedied forthwith by the Defaulting Party at the request of the Non-Defaulting Party to the complete satisfaction of the Non-Defaulting Party; or

(b) the Defaulting Party is unable through death, sickness or injury to carry out its obligations hereunder; or

(c) the Defaulting Party becomes or is likely to become unable to pay its debts (as defined in Section 123 of the Insolvency Act 1986) or becomes subject to or itself invokes, or evidences an intention to invoke, any law or proceedings (in any jurisdiction to which it is subject) relating to its insolvency, liquidation, bankruptcy, winding-up, administration or dissolution or to a rescheduling, composition or arrangement in respect of any of its debts, or the Defaulting Party has a receiver or other encumbrancer appointed over any part of its assets, allows a judgement against it to remain unsatisfied for more than 14 days or fails to make payment when due of any sum owed by it to a third party; or

(d) the Customer being the Defaulting Party the Customer fails to comply with any of the provisions of Clauses 4.2 (payment of Contract Charges), 5 (Customer's Responsibilities) or 14 (Restrictions) of this Agreement.

10.2 Either party may terminate the Agreement by not less than 30 days written notice to the other party.

10.3 Effects of Termination

(a) In the event that the Agreement is terminated for whatever reason, each party upon receiving a specific written request in writing from the other shall return to the other party all property belonging to the other party then in its possession. The termination of the Agreement as provided for herein shall not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which shall have accrued or shall thereafter accrue to either party.

(b) If this Agreement is terminated in addition to any other remedies that may be available to the Company either under the Agreement or otherwise (and without prejudicing such rights) the Company shall be entitled to immediately invoice for unpaid work. The Customer will pay the Company all monies properly due together with any monies incurred by the Company in the performance of the services at the date of termination of the Agreement.

11 DATA PROTECTION

In this clause:

“Controller” “Data Subject” and “Processor” has the meanings given to “Controller” “Data Subject” and “Data Processor” under the Data Protection Legislation for the applicable Data.

“Data Protection Legislation” means all applicable data protection and privacy legislation, regulations and guidance including but not limited to, Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (the "General Data Protection Regulation" or "GDPR") or in the event that the UK leaves the European Union, all equivalent legislation enacted in the UK in respect of the protection of personal data and the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations and guidance and codes of practice issued by the Information Commissioner from time to time (all as amended, updated or re-enacted from time to time).

“Personal Data” has the meanings given by the Data Protection Legislation.

“Project Results” means the information and Intellectual Property Rights (if any) arising out of or generated under the applicable Work Statement.

“Reportable Breach” means any unauthorised or unlawful processing, disclosure of, or access to, Customer Data and/or any accidental or unlawful destruction of, loss of, alteration to, or corruption of Customer Data.

11.1 Each party will comply with its own applicable Controller and/or Processor related obligations under the Data Protection Legislation for Data.

11.2 Each party, as Processor, will in respect of Personal Data of the other party:

(a) ensure that the appropriate technical and organisational measures are in place to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing of the Personal Data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, the Personal Data, appropriate to the harm that might result from the unauthorised or unlawful processing or accidental loss, destruction or damage and the nature of the data to be protected, having regard to the state of technological development and the cost of implementing any measures;

(b) process the Personal Data only in accordance with the Controller's documented instructions (and keep a written record of such instructions) or as required by any applicable laws;

(c) promptly provide to each other such information, co-operation and assistance as the other party may from time to time reasonably require to enable it to comply with its obligations under the Data Protection Legislation as a data controller in respect of any such Personal Data, including: (i) notifying the other party of any Reportable Breach by telephone or email as soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware of the same, (ii) providing the other party with such reasonable assistance and information in relation to such Reportable Breach as the other party requests; and (iii) assisting each other by appropriate technical and organisational measures for the fulfilment of its obligation to respond to requests for exercising of Personal Data Subject rights (including access requests) set out in the Data Protection Legislation;

(d) ensure that access to the Personal Data is strictly limited to only those of the party's or its sub-contractor's personnel, agents and representatives as is reasonably necessary to fulfil obligations under the Contract and that such personnel, agents and representatives are under an obligation to handle the Personal Data in accordance with the obligations regarding confidentiality under the Contract;

(e) comply with the Controller's reasonable instructions notified in advance regarding the processing of Personal Data;

(f) provide the Controller with such information as the Controller requires to be able to demonstrate compliance with the Data Protection Legislation and allow for audits and inspections of the facilities used by the Controller to process the Personal Data by the Controller; and

(g) assist the Controller in responding to any request from a Data Subject and in ensuring compliance with our obligations under the Data Protection Legislation with respect to security, breach notifications, impact assessments and consultations with supervisory authorities or regulators.

11.3 A party will take care to only transfer Personal Data of the other party to a sub-contractor if that sub-contractor is bound by equivalent terms in all Material respects to clause 8.

11.4 A party will not transfer Personal Data of the other party to a country or international organisation located outside the European Economic Area ("EEA") or, in the event the United Kingdom ceases to be a member of the EEA, outside the United Kingdom without the prior written consent of the other party. Where that other party consents to such transfer, the transferring party shall ensure that the third country or international organisation to which the Personal Data is transferred ensures an adequate level of protection to such Personal Data, or that appropriate safeguards for such Personal Data, as provided for in Art 46 of GDPR and ensuring all enforceable rights for Data Subjects are reserved, are provided for such that the transfer is made in compliance with the obligations on parties under the Data Protection Legislation.

12 REGULATORY

12.1 Modern Slavery

(a) In performing its obligations under the Contract, each party will: (1) comply with all applicable anti-slavery and human trafficking laws, statutes and regulations from time to time in force including but not limited to the Modern Slavery Act 2015; and (2) have and maintain throughout the term of the Contract its own policies and procedures to ensure its compliance with anti-slavery and human trafficking laws.

(b) The Company's policy on modern slavery and human trafficking can be found at Capacitas.co.uk (or otherwise on written request).

12.2 Anti-Corruption

Each party will comply with all applicable anti-corruption and anti-bribery laws to include, but not limited to, the Bribery Act 2010.

13 RESTRICTIONS

The Customer shall not (and it shall procure that each member of its group shall not) for a period beginning on the Commencement Date hereof until twelve (12) months after termination of this Agreement for whatever reason, directly or indirectly solicit or procure (otherwise than by general advertising) the employment of any employee(s), agents or subcontractors including the Consultants of the Company involved in the performance of the Services.

14 GENERAL

14.1 Amendments

The Agreement shall not be amended except with the prior written approval of authorised representatives of both parties or by the Company issuing a Work Statement to be agreed in writing by the Customer. The Company shall not be under any obligation to provide services to the Customer without a relevant Work Statement signed by the Customer.

14.2 Notices and Communications

Any notice or request required or permitted to be given or made under this Agreement shall be in writing. Such notice or request shall be deemed to be duly given or made when it shall have been delivered by hand, mail, e-mail, to the party to which it is required to be given or made at such party's address specified above or such other address as notified to the other party.

14.3 Waiver

Any waiver or relaxation whether partly or wholly of any of the terms or conditions of the contract shall be valid only if in writing and signed by or on behalf of a director of each party and shall apply only to a particular occasion and shall not be continuing and further shall not constitute a waiver or relaxation of any other terms or conditions.

14.4 Severability

If any provision or part provision of the Agreement is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason, such provision or part provision shall be severed and the remainder of the provisions hereof shall continue in full force and effect as if the Agreement had been executed with the invalid provision or part provision eliminated. In the event of a holding of invalidity so fundamental as to prevent the accomplishment of the purpose of the Agreement, the parties shall immediately commence good faith negotiation to remedy such invalidity.

14.5 Assignment and Sub-Contracting

The Company may assign the Agreement in whole or in part without the prior written consent of the Customer. The Company may delegate or sub-contract its duties under this Agreement to any third party.

14.6 Set Off

Whenever under the Agreement any sum of money is recoverable from or payable by the Customer the same may be deducted from any sum then due or which at any time thereafter may become due to the Customer under the Agreement or any other contract between the parties.

15 Entire Agreement

This Agreement supersedes all previous conditions understandings commitments agreements or representations (other than fraudulent misrepresentations) whatsoever whether oral or written relating to the subject matter hereof and constitutes the entire agreement between the parties relating to the subject matter hereof.

15.1 Force Majeure

- (a) Neither party will be liable for any delay in performing or failure to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement caused by events beyond its reasonable control ("Force Majeure Event").
- (b) The party claiming the Force Majeure Event will promptly notify the other in writing of the reasons for the delay or stoppage (and the likely duration) and will take all reasonable steps to overcome the delay or stoppage.
- (c) If that party has complied with clause 16.1(b) its performance under this Agreement will be suspended for the period that the Force Majeure Event continues, and the party will have an extension of time for performance which is reasonable. As regards such delay or stoppage:
 - (i) any costs arising from the delay or stoppage will be borne by the party incurring those costs;
 - (ii) either party, may, if the delay or stoppage continues for more than 28 continuous days, terminate this Agreement with immediately effect on giving written notice to the other and neither party will be liable to the other for such termination; and
 - (iii) the party claiming the Force Majeure Event will take all necessary steps to bring the Event to a close or to find a solution by which the Agreement may be performed despite the Event.

15.2 Exclusion of Third Party Rights

A person who is not a party to this Agreement shall have no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this Agreement. This clause does not affect any right or remedy of any person which exists or is available otherwise than pursuant to that Act.

15.3 Survival No part of this Agreement shall survive termination or expiry of this Agreement, save for clauses 1, 4 and 6 - 15

15.4 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

The Agreement shall be governed, construed and shall take effect in accordance with the laws of England, subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
