AND initially conducted a migration assessment to determine scope and business case of migrating away from on-premise data centres. We then assisted the client in establishing effective the AWS Landing zone, understanding migration time constraints, ensuring solid foundations and ensuring a secure migration.

N BROWN GROUP PLC

Wanting to stay ahead in an industry full of disruption AND helped to transition N Brown's monolith platform from on-premise hosting to the Cloud and automate it through microservices, ensuring it was secure and could scale at peak.

A photograph of three people in a meeting. A woman with blonde hair is on the left, looking towards the right. Two men are in the center and right, looking at a whiteboard. The man in the center is pointing at the whiteboard with his right hand. He is wearing a light-colored shirt and glasses. The man on the right is wearing a dark jacket with a white logo that says "CALVIN KLEIN JEANS" and is also pointing at the whiteboard. The whiteboard has some papers and diagrams on it. The background is a blurred office environment.
