

I-NET Software Solutions

Terms & Conditions

- The Supplier shall not be monitored, supervised, directed or controlled regarding how the services are delivered.
- The Supplier shall not be defined any scope or plans for the delivery of a service.
- The Supplier shall use its own equipment where security requirements permit.
- The Supplier shall use its own initiative as to the manner in which services are to be delivered.
- The Supplier is expected to provide the services on such hours/days as required to meet any deadlines, as agreed between the Supplier and the Client.
- The Supplier shall provide the necessary resources to support the Services which shall include one or more specialists.
- The outputs and deliverables will be linked to payments and time scales
- The Client is willing to accept substitute personnel with the relevant skills and expertise.

- The Client has to provide clear delivery plan and time lines