

Introduction Presentation

In 2014 we set out to challenge the negative perceptions of recruitment and build a business with a refreshingly different approach...

thus RevTech was born.

Talent acquisition is one of the greatest barriers to the success of a technology business... That is where we come in.

The foundations of the business are built upon the underlining principle:

“A diverse team is a better team”

How to Engage with Us

Partnership VS Contingent

We engage with our clients in one of two different models dependent on need, volume, time, resources, role and client.

This allows us to be flexible in delivery and always work with the goal of delivering the best way possible for our clients.

“One of the best recruiters I ever worked with. RevTech always finds us top talent, fast too! Their hard-work, intuition, gut feel, professionalism, consistency and reliability are particularly noteworthy.”

“Trustworthy and dedicated you can rely on RevTech to listen to the business needs and match them accordingly.”

“RevTech have added lot of extra value. Given their knowledge about the market, feedback was always relevant adding value and allowing me to hire efficiently. I would recommend them to anyone!”

“Their approach is far more methodical and considered than most agencies taking the time to really understand our requirements and the type of people we are looking to hire. I can highly recommend them if you are looking to hire good quality tech candidates.”

“The guys at RevTech have provided us with some outstanding candidates for a variety of niche roles. I’m particularly hard to please but can find no fault in what has been a seamless experience. I would recommend without hesitation.”

We look forward to working with you!
