

G-Cloud 14: Terms and conditions for Jisc Cloud Solutions

Important legal notice. If you submit a purchase order for any Jisc Cloud Solutions, you create a legally binding contract for your institution, organisation or company which is governed by these terms and conditions. Therefore please read these Terms and Conditions for Jisc Cloud Solutions carefully and only submit your purchase order if they are acceptable to your institution, organisation or company. These terms and conditions also govern trials of Jisc Cloud Solutions.

These terms and conditions apply to the provision of services by Jisc to the Customer. The Services to be delivered may include managed services, professional services, software development services, consultancy and related services as described in the relevant Service Description. Such Services may involve the delivery of services incorporating services of third parties; in particular in respect of managed services such as cloud hosting this will involve the use of Amazon Web Services (AWS), Microsoft Azure or Google services for the provision of such services. Where AWS, Microsoft or Google services are involved, the relevant terms and conditions applicable to AWS, Microsoft or Google shall be applicable in addition to these terms and conditions and by signing the Call-Off Contract for the Services, the Customer agrees to be bound by those applicable terms and conditions. Details of the AWS, Microsoft or Google cloud hosting conditions (including links to such terms and conditions) can be found within the relevant Service Description.

- 1.1.15. Party means Customer or Jisc, and together known as the Parties.
- 1.1.16. Professional Services means consultancy, design, development or customisation services as more fully described in the relevant Service Description.
- 1.1.17. Service Description means the detailed description of the Services offered by Jisc under this Agreement including the Managed Services and the Professional Services. The Service Descriptions (including the service level agreements and the guidelines for use of the Services) are published at <https://www.digitalmarketplace.service.gov.uk/> and the rates and prices published at <https://www.digitalmarketplace.service.gov.uk/>.
- 1.1.18. Services means the services to be provided by Jisc, as set out in the Call-Off Contract and/or Service Description(s). The Services may include software supplied by Jisc for use solely in connection with the Services.
- 1.1.19. Start Date has the meaning given to it at Clause 12.1.
- 1.1.20. Third Party Materials means the works and/or materials comprised in the Deliverables, the Intellectual Property Rights in which are owned by a third party.

Terms applicable to agreements for Professional Services

2. Professional Services

- 2.1. Jisc will provide the Services described in the Call-Off Contract and/ or Service Description for the term specified in the Call-Off Contract, on and subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement.
- 2.2. Jisc will provide the Services:
- 2.2.1. using reasonable skill and care;
 - 2.2.2. in a timely and professional manner;
 - 2.2.3. In accordance with the timetable set out in the Call-Off Contract ; and
 - 2.2.4. in accordance with the standards generally observed in the industry for similar services.
- 2.3. Jisc will use reasonable endeavours to ensure the continuity of its personnel and their involvement in the Services.
- 2.4. Jisc has assumed contiguous Business Days during business hours for the purposes of its quotation for the Services. If the Customer wishes to suspend the work, it must give Jisc at least one week's prior written notice. In the absence of such notice, Jisc reserves the right to charge at its standard rates for assigned personnel who cannot be re-deployed to work for other customers. Jisc will require one week's notice to re-commence work following suspension.

- 2.5. If any change to the nature or scope of the Services or any other aspect of this Agreement is identified as being desirable by either the Customer or Jisc, a request may be submitted to the other party to effect such change. Any such request will be sufficiently detailed to enable the other Party to assess the impact of the proposed change. Any change to the nature or scope of the Services or any other aspect of this Agreement will only become effective when Jisc provides written confirmation (including by e-mail) of the agreed change and any applicable terms.
- 2.6. Jisc will use reasonable endeavours to ensure that it does not introduce any virus or other specific vulnerability into any computer system used by the Customer and will ensure that no software, data or files residing on those systems will, at any time, be corrupted, damaged or rendered inaccessible by any act or omission of Jisc.
- 2.7. Jisc shall use all reasonable endeavours to perform the Services by the dates set out in the Call-Off Contract or Service Description and in any project plan. Unless specifically agreed to the contrary in the Call-Off Contract or Service Description, Jisc shall have no liability for liquidated or other damages arising out of such delay.
- 2.8. Where Jisc is delayed in the performance of its Services as a result of any circumstances outside its control including without limitation force majeure or delays caused by the Customer or its agents, Jisc shall have the right upon notice to the Customer to either (i) suspend the provision of the Services or (ii) advise the Customer of the anticipated delay to the Services and the additional costs associated with retaining resources in order to deliver the Services.
- 2.9. In such circumstances, Jisc shall be entitled to invoice for Service performed at that date, including where such delay impacts an interim milestone, Jisc shall have the right to invoice for work completed notwithstanding that such milestone has been delayed.

3. Acceptance of Professional Service

- 3.1. Unless otherwise agreed, Professional Services are deemed to be accepted upon completion of the Deliverables.
- 3.2. Where formal acceptance has been agreed, the following applies unless otherwise agreed:
 - 3.2.1. Jisc will notify the Customer when any item is ready for acceptance;
 - 3.2.2. Within five (5) Business Days of Jisc's notice, the Customer will confirm its acceptance in writing, or, if the Customer reasonably believes that the item does not substantially conform with the acceptance criteria agreed by the Parties, the Customer will confirm this in writing with sufficient details for Jisc to be able to understand the deficiency;
 - 3.2.3. As soon as reasonably possible, Jisc will correct rejected items and re-submit them for testing and acceptance as above;
 - 3.2.4. Any item will be deemed to be accepted if the Customer does not issue confirmation of acceptance or non-acceptance within the timescale in Clause 3.2.2; and
 - 3.2.5. commercial usage of any item constitutes acceptance of the item. Commercial usage means use for any business purpose other than testing.

4. Customer's Obligations

- 4.1. The Customer will:
 - 4.1.1. provide access to its premises, computers and networks as is reasonably requested by Jisc;
 - 4.1.2. ensure that its personnel cooperate fully with Jisc in relation to the provision of the Services; and
 - 4.1.3. promptly provide Jisc with such information and documents as it may reasonably request for the proper performance of its obligations hereunder and be responsible for ensuring that such information is true, accurate, complete and not misleading in any material respect.
- 4.2. The Customer shall be responsible for procuring any third party cooperation reasonably required by Jisc to enable Jisc to perform its obligations under this Agreement.
- 4.3. Should the Customer fail to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement then Jisc may request, under Clause 2.5, an appropriate change to this Agreement to reflect any delay, cost increase or other consequences arising from such failure.

5. Payment for Professional Services

- 5.1. The Customer will pay Jisc the Fees specified in the Call-Off Contract. All Fees will be invoiced monthly in arrears.
- 5.2. All due and valid invoices will be paid by the Customer within thirty (30) days of receipt unless there is a bona fide dispute as to the amount of the invoice.
- 5.3. All Fees are stated exclusive of value added tax which will be added to the invoices at the prevailing rate and will be paid by the Customer accordingly.

6. Intellectual Property Rights in Deliverables

- 6.1. Jisc shall ensure that the Third Party Materials are sub-licensed by Jisc to the Customer in accordance with the relevant licensor's standard licensing terms.

Terms applicable to agreements for Managed Services

7. Jisc obligations

- 7.1. In return for the payment of the Fees, Jisc grants the Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferrable right to use the Services and to permit Authorised Users to use the Services for the duration of the Agreement.
- 7.2. Jisc will perform the Services with the skill and care of a competent provider of services of a type similar to the Services and in all material respects in accordance with the applicable Service Description and service level agreement. Jisc will use all reasonable efforts to achieve the KPIs; availability targets and respond, restore or fix times and any other service metrics and maintenance regimes set out in the Service Description(s). Any service credits set out in the Service Description(s) are in full and final settlement of the relevant failure by Jisc. Service credits are used to purchase Services, monetary refunds do not apply. Any service credit balance remaining when the Agreement is terminated becomes null and void.
- 7.3. Jisc will maintain security measures aligned to ISO27001 and to the OFFICIAL standard classification.
- 7.4. Jisc shall not knowingly introduce any kind of harmful software, malware, viruses, trojan horses, worms, timebombs, cancelbots into the Services and will take all reasonable steps within its control to prevent the introduction of any of the foregoing.
- 7.5. Jisc will adhere to its privacy policy published at <https://www.jisc.ac.uk/website/privacy-notice>. The Customer will ensure that all Authorised Users are aware that the privacy policy applies to the Agreement.
- 7.6. Jisc warrants that it has all necessary authority, licences, rights, permissions and consents to enter into the Agreement.
- 7.7. The obligations in this Clause 7 replace all conditions, representations and warranties which may otherwise be implied by statute, common law or otherwise. The Customer is responsible for selecting the Services appropriate to its needs. Jisc cannot assess whether such Services are suitable for Customer's purposes.
- 7.8. Where Jisc is delivering Services utilising the services of any third party provider, the terms and conditions of such provider shall apply in respect of such services; in particular in respect of cloud hosting this will involve the use of Amazon Web Services (AWS), Microsoft Azure or Google for the provision of such services. Where AWS, Microsoft or Google services are involved, the relevant terms and conditions applicable to AWS, Microsoft or Google shall be applicable in addition to these terms and conditions and by completing a Call-Off Contract or submitting a purchase order for the Services, the Customer agrees to be bound by all of the applicable terms and conditions. Details of the AWS, Microsoft and Google cloud hosting conditions (including links to such terms and conditions) can be found within the relevant Service Description. The Customer acknowledges that no assurances in respect of the third party services is provided, and no liability in connection therewith is assumed by Jisc under this Agreement and that this is reasonable as the Customer will have a direct contractual relationship with AWS, Microsoft or Google as applicable.

8. Acknowledgments and Warranty Limitations

- 8.1. The Customer acknowledges that complex software is never wholly free from defects, errors and bugs; and subject to the other provisions of this Agreement, Jisc gives no warranty or representation that the Services will be wholly free from defects, errors and bugs.

- 8.2. The Customer acknowledges that that complex software is never entirely free from security vulnerabilities; and subject to the other provisions of this Agreement, Jisc gives no warranty or representation that the Services will be entirely secure.
- 8.3. The Customer acknowledges that the Services are designed to be compatible only with that software and those systems specified as compatible in the relevant Service Description(s); and Jisc does not warrant or represent that the Services will be compatible with any other software or systems.

9. Customer Obligations

- 9.1. In return for the proper performance of the Services, the Customer shall pay the Fees to Jisc in accordance with Clause 10 below.
- 9.2. The Customer warrants that it has all necessary authority, rights, permissions and consents to enter into the Agreement and to the Content and to any third party systems or services that it uses in connection with the Services. The Customer will abide by the licence terms and conditions published in the Service Description(s) for all software forming part of the Services. The Customer shall ensure that the licence terms and conditions of all other software used by the Customer in connection with the Services permit such use.
- 9.3. The Customer shall ensure that all Authorised Users are sufficiently competent to meet the relevant obligations of the Customer set out in the Agreement. Where the Customer has an obligation under this Agreement, such obligation shall extend to its Authorised Users and the Customer shall procure compliance with such obligation by such Authorised Users. The Customer is liable for the actions, omissions, breaches and Fees incurred by Authorised Users.
- 9.4. The Customer shall not access, store, distribute or transmit any Objectionable Content nor use the Services for any Objectionable activity or purpose. Any such actions by the Customer or any Authorised User shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.
- 9.5. The Customer shall not introduce any kind of harmful software, malware, viruses, trojan horses, worms, timebombs cancelbots into the systems or services of Jisc, its suppliers or customers.
- 9.6. The Customer must maintain the confidentiality and security of all logon credentials and the details of how to use the Customer's account. The Customer is responsible for all Fees incurred through unauthorised access of its account, unless such unauthorised access is solely caused by Jisc. If the Customer discovers any unauthorised access, it must immediately ask Jisc to suspend the Customer's account in which case the provisions of Clause 11 shall apply.
- 9.7. The Customer shall not, and shall ensure that Authorised Users shall not, attempt to circumvent any security measures relating to the Services or infrastructure nor access Jisc's infrastructure except in accordance with the instructions and APIs specified by Jisc.
- 9.8. The Customer is solely responsible for procuring and maintaining its systems and services from and to the Jisc service boundary. The Jisc service boundary is defined in the Service Description(s).
- 9.9. The Customer is solely responsible for the development, operation, maintenance and use of the Content and for compliance with any third party AUP or other policies, regulations or laws relating to the same. The Customer uses third party products and services in connection with the Services at its sole risk and is liable for any costs incurred by Jisc as a result of the Customer's use of the same.
- 9.10. The Customer is responsible for properly configuring and using the Services and taking its own steps to maintain appropriate security, protection and backup of the Content, which may include the use of encryption technology to protect the Content from unauthorised access and routine archiving. Unless the Services include back up services, Jisc recommends that the Customer maintains an up to date copy of the Content by other means.
- 9.11. Unless otherwise set out in the Agreement the Customer is responsible for providing all support to its users and customers. Jisc shall provide support to the Customer for the Services as described in the Service Description(s) but does not provide any support for the Customer's services or systems that interact with the Services.
- 9.12. The Customer may use the Services to provide services to its own customers but may not subcontract, sublicense, supply or re-sell the Services.
- 9.13. The Customer accepts that Jisc may be required by law to monitor the Content and use of the Services and to provide details of the same which may include identification of logon credentials and their usage. Jisc shall not be liable for any effect on the Services caused by the obligation to comply with any requests made under any statutory authority. The Customer agrees that without prejudice to Clauses 7.5 and 15, Jisc may also monitor the Customer's use of the Services and accumulate statistics for purposes connected with the Agreement and so as to be able to develop and improve the Services.

- 9.14. For the duration of the Agreement and for twelve months thereafter, the Customer shall not solicit the services or employment of any Jisc personnel. This provision does not apply to unsolicited approaches to the Customer or responses to any public recruitment campaign.

10. Fees and payment

- 10.1. The rates and charges comprising the Fees are as set out in the Call-Off Contract and the relevant Service Description(s).
- 10.2. Jisc may calculate Fees on an annual basis for the Customer's information. However, all Fees will be invoiced monthly in arrears throughout the Contract Period.
- 10.3. All invoices are due for payment within thirty (30) days of the invoice date. Jisc may charge interest in accordance with the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 on any late payment.
- 10.4. Fees are quoted exclusive of VAT which will be paid by the Customer at the prevailing rate.
- 10.5. The Customer shall pay the appropriate consumption based charges charged by AWS, Microsoft or Google (as applicable). The Customer shall pay these to Jisc unless agreed by the Parties that such payment should be directly to AWS, Microsoft or Google (pursuant to an enterprise agreement between the Customer and the relevant cloud hosting provider). Where applicable, the charges payable to AWS, Microsoft or Google will be identified separately on Jisc's invoice along with details of the consumption of services by the Customer to which they relate.

11. Suspension and Delay

- 11.1. Suspension: Without prejudice to any of its other rights or any rights of any of Jisc's cloud hosting providers, Jisc may suspend the Services in whole or part, upon written notice to the Customer where:
- 11.1.1. Jisc in its sole and reasonable discretion, considers, or any third party claims, that the Customer is in breach of Clause 9.4; or
 - 11.1.2. the Customer exceeds the usage or financial cap for its account or in the event of nonpayment of any invoice for a period of ninety (90) days; or
 - 11.1.3. Jisc reasonably believes that the owner of any Intellectual Property in the Content has withheld, withdrawn or failed to give its permission for the Customer's use of the same; or
 - 11.1.4. Jisc reasonably believes there to be a material breach, or persistent lesser breach by the Customer of the Agreement; or
 - 11.1.5. Jisc is requested to do so by any statutory authority.
- 11.2. Jisc may suspend the Services until the circumstances causing the suspension have ceased.
- 11.3. The Customer will be obliged to pay the Fees for duration of the suspension. The Customer will be liable for any additional costs incurred by Jisc relating to the matter causing the suspension.
- 11.4. The Customer will have no access to the Content during any period of suspension.
- 11.5. Jisc shall not be liable for any of its obligations under any service level agreement applicable to the Services that are affected by suspension. Terms applicable to all agreements

12. Term and termination

- 12.1. The Agreement shall come into force upon execution by both Parties. The Parties may agree that the Contract Period begins on the date as set out in the Call-Off Contract (Start Date) (provided that the Customer allows at least five (5) Business Days between the date of the Call-Off Contract and the start date of the Services). In such circumstances, the Services shall be deemed to have started upon the Start Date and the Customer shall pay for such Services from such date. Contract Periods shall also commence on the Start Date. The Agreement continues for successive Contract Periods until terminated in accordance with this Clause 12 or the Call-Off Contract.
- 12.2. The Customer may terminate the Agreement at the end of the initial Contract Period by giving Jisc not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice.
- 12.3. The Customer may terminate the Agreement at any time during subsequent Contract Periods by giving Jisc not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice.

- 12.4. Jisc may terminate the Agreement at any time during subsequent Contract Periods by giving the Customer not less than sixty (60) days' prior written notice.
- 12.5. Either Party may terminate the Agreement immediately by giving written notice to the other if the other:
- 12.5.1. is in material breach or commits persistent lesser breaches of any of the provisions of the Agreement;
 - 12.5.2. is in material breach or persistent lesser breaches of any of the provisions of the Agreement (not being breaches of the same provisions) which are capable of remedy but fails to remedy such breach within thirty (30) days of receiving written notice of the same; or
 - 12.5.3. presents a petition or has a petition presented by a creditor for its winding up, or calls a meeting to pass a resolution for voluntary winding up, or enters into any liquidation (other than for the purposes of a bona fide reconstruction or amalgamation), or calls a meeting of its creditors, or has a receiver appointed for any of its undertakings or assets, or is deemed by any relevant statutory provisions to be unable to pay its debts or, where the Customer, being a private individual, is subject of a bankruptcy petition.
 - 12.5.4. All rights and obligations of the Parties under the Agreement shall automatically cease upon termination except for such rights of action that have accrued prior to such termination and any rights or obligations under the Agreement or at law, which expressly or by implication are intended to come into or continue in force upon termination.
 - 12.5.5. The Customer is responsible for removing all Content from Jisc's infrastructure prior to the date of termination of the Agreement.
 - 12.5.6. Within thirty (30) days following the termination of the Agreement for any reason the Customer shall pay to Jisc any Fees in respect of Services provided to the Customer before the termination of the Agreement.
 - 12.5.7. Upon termination of the Agreement, Jisc shall be entitled to re-assign all IP addresses and server names previously assigned to the Customer and the Customer shall promptly update all corresponding DNS entries for the Customer's domain name(s).
 - 12.5.8. Upon termination of the Agreement all of the provisions of the Agreement shall cease to have effect save that the following provisions shall survive and continue to have effect (in accordance with their express terms or otherwise indefinitely: Clause 1, 5, 9.7, 10, 12.5.4, 12.5.5, 12.5.6, 12.5.7, 12.5.8, 14, 15, 16, 19, 20, 21 and 25.

13. Intellectual Property and Intellectual Property indemnity

- 13.1. Jisc warrants that it is the owner or licensee of all Intellectual Property necessary for the performance of the Services. All Intellectual Property relating to the Services and derivative works thereof arising under or during the Agreement shall be owned exclusively by Jisc or its licensors.
- 13.2. Jisc grants the Customer the right to use Jisc's Intellectual Property to the extent necessary for the Customer to make proper use of the Services but for no other purpose.
- 13.3. Jisc agrees to indemnify the Customer from all claims that its Intellectual Property infringes the rights of any third party provided that the Customer:
- 13.3.1. has used the Intellectual Property in accordance with the Agreement;
 - 13.3.2. does not knowingly make or intimate any admission, settlement, opinion or undertaking that may be detrimental to Jisc's defence;
 - 13.3.3. gives Jisc prompt notice of any claim and the right to defend and settle any such claims in its own discretion;
 - 13.3.4. gives Jisc reasonable assistance to defend any such claims at Jisc's cost;
 - 13.3.5. uses all reasonable endeavours to mitigate Jisc's liability.
- 13.4. If any such infringement occurs or may occur, Jisc may at its sole option and expense:
- 13.4.1. procure the right for the Customer to continue using the Services; or
 - 13.4.2. modify or amend the Services so as to remove or avoid the infringement without materially altering the designed capability.
- 13.5. The Customer warrants that it is the owner or licensee of all Intellectual Property in the Content. All Intellectual Property relating to the Content and derivative works thereof arising under or during the Agreement shall be owned exclusively by the Customer or its licensors.

- 13.6. The Customer grants Jisc the right to use the Customer's Intellectual Property to the extent necessary for Jisc to provide the Services but for no other purpose.
- 13.7. The Customer agrees to indemnify Jisc from all claims that the Content or any of the Customer's Intellectual Property infringes the rights of any third party provided that Jisc:
- 13.7.1. has used the Content and Intellectual Property in accordance with the Agreement;
 - 13.7.2. does not knowingly make or intimate any admission, settlement, opinion or undertaking that may be detrimental to the Customer's defence;
 - 13.7.3. gives the Customer prompt notice of any claim and the right to defend and settle any such claims in its own discretion;
 - 13.7.4. gives the Customer reasonable assistance to defend any such claims at the Customer's cost;
 - 13.7.5. uses all reasonable endeavours to mitigate the Customer's liability.
- 13.8. If any such infringement occurs or may occur, the Customer may at its sole option and expense:
- 13.8.1. procure the right for Jisc to continue using the Intellectual Property for the purpose of supplying the Services; or
 - 13.8.2. modify or amend the Content so as to remove or avoid the infringement; or
 - 13.8.3. promptly remove or discontinue use of the Content affected by the third party claim.

14. Data protection

14.1. In this Clause 14 the following definitions shall apply:

Agreement	means the agreement between Jisc and the Customer for the provision of the Service;
Applicable EU Law	any law of the European Union (or the law of one of the Member States of the European Union);

Third Party Request	means a written request from any third party for disclosure of Personal Data where compliance with such request is required or purported to be required by law or regulation;

14.2. The Parties acknowledge that the factual arrangement between them dictates the classification of each party in respect of the Data Protection Legislation.

14.3. Where a party acts as a Controller in respect of any Personal Data Processed under or in connection with this Agreement, it shall comply with its respective obligations under the Data Protection Legislation and it shall only use such Personal Data for the purposes of performing its obligations under this Agreement.

Processor Obligations

14.4. If and to the extent that Jisc (for the purpose of this Clause 14.4 the "Processor") Processes any Personal Data on behalf of Customer (for the purpose of this Clause 14.4, the "Controller"), the Processor undertakes to the Controller that the Processor shall:

- 14.4.1. Process the Personal Data for and on behalf of the Customer in connection with the performance of the Service only and for no other purpose in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and any instructions from the Customer;
- 14.4.2. unless prohibited by law, promptly notify the Customer (and in any event within forty-eight (48) hours of becoming aware of the same) if it considers, in its opinion (acting reasonably) that it is required by Applicable EU Law to act other than in accordance with the instructions of the Customer, including where it believes that any of the Customer's instructions under Clause 14.4.1 infringes any of the Data Protection Legislation;
- 14.4.3. implement and maintain appropriate technical and organisational security measures to comply with at least the obligations imposed on a Controller by the Security Requirements. If requested by the Customer, Jisc will provide a description of the technical and organisational security measures that Jisc will implement and maintain;
- 14.4.4. take all reasonable steps to ensure the reliability and integrity of any of the Personnel who shall have access to the Personal Data, and ensure that each member of Personnel shall have entered into appropriate contractually-binding confidentiality undertakings;
- 14.4.5. notify the Customer promptly, and in any event within forty-eight (48) hours, upon becoming aware of any actual or suspected, threatened or 'near miss' Personal Data Breach, and:
 - (a) implement any measures necessary to restore the security of compromised Personal Data;
 - (b) assist the Customer to make any notifications to ICO and affected Data Subjects;
- 14.4.6. notify the Customer promptly (and in any event within ninety-six (96) hours) following its receipt of any Data Subject Request or ICO Correspondence and shall:
 - (a) not disclose any Personal Data in response to any Data Subject Request or ICO Correspondence without the Customer's prior written consent; and
 - (b) provide the Customer with all reasonable co-operation and assistance required by the Customer in relation to any such Data Subject Request or ICO Correspondence;
- 14.4.7. not disclose Personal Data to a third party in any circumstances without the Customer's prior written consent, other than:
 - (a) in relation to Third Party Requests where Jisc is required by law to make such a disclosure, in which case it shall use reasonable endeavours to advise the Customer in advance of such disclosure and in any event as soon as practicable thereafter, unless prohibited by law or regulation from notifying the Customer;
 - (b) to Jisc's employees, officers, representatives and advisers who need to know such information for the purposes of Jisc performing its obligations under this Agreement and in this respect Jisc shall ensure that its employees, officers, representatives and advisers to whom it discloses the Personal Data are made aware of their obligations with regard to the use and security of Personal Data under this Agreement; and
 - (c) to a sub-contractor appointed in accordance with Clause 14.7.
- 14.4.8. not make (nor instruct or permit a third party to make) a Data Transfer without putting in place measures to ensure the Customer's compliance with Data Protection Legislation;
- 14.4.9. on the written request of the Customer, and with reasonable notice, allow representatives of the Customer to audit Jisc in order to ascertain compliance with the terms of this Clause 14 and/ or to provide the Customer with reasonable information to demonstrate compliance with the requirements of this Clause 14, provided that:
 - (a) the Customer shall only be permitted to exercise its rights under this Clause 14.4.9 no more frequently than once per year (other than where an audit is being undertaken by a Customer in connection with an actual or 'near miss' Personal Data Breach, in which case, an additional audit may be undertaken each year by the Customer within thirty (30) days of the Customer having been notified of actual or 'near miss' Personal Data Breach);

- (b) each such audit shall be performed at the sole expense of the Customer;
- (c) the Customer shall not, in its performance of each such audit, unreasonably disrupt the business operations of Jisc;
- (d) the Customer shall comply with Jisc's health and safety, security, conduct and other rules, procedures and requirements in relation to Jisc's property and systems which have been notified by Jisc to the Customer in advance; and
- (e) in no case shall the Customer be permitted to access any data, information or records relating to any other customer of Jisc.

14.4.10. except to the extent required by Applicable EU Law, on the earlier of:

- (a) the date of termination or expiry of the Agreement (as applicable); and/or
- (b) the date on which the Personal Data is no longer relevant to, or necessary for, the performance of the Service, cease Processing any of the Personal Data and, within sixty (60) days of the date being applicable under this Clause 14.4.10, return or destroy (as directed, in writing, by the Customer) the Personal Data belonging to, or under the control of, the Customer and ensure that all such data is securely and permanently deleted from its systems, provided that Jisc shall be entitled to retain copies of the Personal Data for evidential purposes and to comply with legal and/or regulatory requirements;

14.4.11. comply with the obligations imposed upon a Processor under the Data Protection Legislation; and

14.4.12. assist the Customer in ensuring compliance with the obligations pursuant to Articles 32 to 36 of the GDPR taking into account the nature of Processing and the information available to Jisc, provided that Jisc shall be entitled to charge a fee to the Customer (on a time and materials basis and at such rate notified by Jisc to the Customer from time to time) in respect of providing any such assistance to the Customer.

14.5. Each of the Parties acknowledges and agrees that the following table sets out an accurate description of the Data Protection Particulars:

The subject matter and duration of the Processing	The hosting of the Customers Content via third party public cloud providers for the term of the Agreement. Such Content may include Personal Data.
The nature and purpose of the Processing	The nature of the Processing will be the hosting of the Customer's Content by Jisc via third party public cloud providers. Jisc employees may have access to the Content for the purposes of performing the Services to be provided under the Agreement.
The type of Customer Data being Processed	The type of Customer Data will depend on the Content being hosted via third party public cloud providers under the Agreement.
The categories of Data Subjects	The categories of Data Subjects will depend on the Content being hosted via third party public cloud providers under the Agreement.

14.6. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, this Clause 14 shall continue in full force and effect for so long as Jisc Processes any Personal Data on behalf of the Customer.

Sub-contractors

- 14.7. Jisc may from time to time use sub-contractors to perform all or any part of its obligations under this Agreement. The Customer agrees that Jisc is generally authorised to engage sub-contractors to Process Personal Data. Information regarding the sub-contractors Jisc uses from time to time in connection with the performance of the Service can be found in the Service Description(s), and may be updated from time to time. Jisc shall notify the Customer prior to any intended changes concerning the addition or replacement of a sub-contractor. The Customer may object to the appointment of any sub-contractor and Jisc shall reasonably take into account the views of the Customer in appointing any such sub-contractor, but for the avoidance of doubt the appointment of any sub-contractor shall be at Jisc's absolute discretion and Jisc shall have no obligation to act in accordance with any objection raised by the Customer.
- 14.8. Jisc may from time to time disclose Personal Data to its sub-contractors (or allow its sub-contractors to access Personal Data) for Processing solely in connection with the fulfilment of the Permitted Purpose.
- 14.9. Where Jisc uses a sub-contractor to Process Personal Data for or on its behalf, it will ensure that the sub-contractor contract (as it relates to the Processing of Personal Data) is on terms which are substantially the same as, and in any case no less onerous than, the terms set out in Clause 14.
- 14.10. Jisc shall remain liable to the Customer for the acts, errors and omissions of any of its subcontractors to whom it discloses Personal Data, and shall be responsible to the Customer for the acts, errors and omissions of such sub-contractor as if they were Jisc's own acts, errors and omissions to the extent that Jisc would be liable to the Customer under this Agreement for those acts and omissions.

15. Confidential information

- 15.1. Confidential Information means information howsoever disclosed by one Party to the other which was not already in the public domain prior to the Agreement.
- 15.2. Each Party shall only use the other's Confidential Information to the extent necessary and in connection with the performance or use of the Services, as applicable, or as otherwise necessary to give effect to the Agreement, or as may be required by law.
- 15.3. Each Party agrees to keep the other's Confidential Information in confidence and only disclose such Confidential Information on a need-to-know basis and only to persons or parties under its control.
 - 15.3.1. The Customer agrees that Jisc may include the Customer in its list of customers. Each Party will obtain the other's prior written approval for any other publicity concerning the Agreement or which mentions the other Party.
 - 15.3.2. The obligations in this Clause 15 survive termination of the Agreement.

16. Liability

- 16.1. Subject to Clause 16.4 and without prejudice to Clause 16.3, the Parties agree that the amount of charges payable by the Customer to AWS, Microsoft or Google, as applicable, under Clause 10.5 will not be taken into account in calculating Jisc's liability under Clause 16.2. Furthermore, the Parties agree that the Customer may not bring a claim for amounts recoverable under Clause 16.2 in respect of any services provided by AWS, Microsoft or Google.
- 16.2. Jisc's aggregate liability to the Customer in any Contract Period in connection with the Agreement howsoever arising shall not exceed the greater of ten thousand pounds sterling (£10,000) or the aggregate of the Fees paid by the Customer in the twelve months prior to the event giving rise to the liability.
- 16.3. Jisc shall not be liable to the Customer for any loss of profit, business, revenue, goodwill or anticipated savings or for any consequential or indirect loss or damage howsoever arising.
- 16.4. Jisc does not exclude or limit liability arising from any wilful misconduct or fraud on its part nor for any liability for any death or personal injury arising from its negligence.

17. TUPE

- 17.1. The Customer shall indemnify Jisc from all arising costs and liabilities and these terms and conditions and the Fees shall be reasonably adjusted if it is deemed that the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006 or similar apply to the Agreement.

18. Assignment and Sub-Contracting

- 18.1. Neither Party may assign or transfer all or part of the Agreement, or any of its rights or obligations or appoint any agent to perform such obligations without the other's prior written consent. However, by giving the other not less than sixty (60) days' written notice, either Party may transfer all of its rights and obligations to a wholly owned subsidiary, or to a wholly owned subsidiary of its parent company, or to its parent company.
- 18.2. Jisc may at any time use third party sub-contractors to perform some or all of its duties and obligations provided:
- 18.2.1. Jisc promptly provides the Customer with details of the sub-contractors; and
- 18.2.2. Jisc will consider in good faith any comments that the Customer may make to Jisc in relation to the performance of any of its sub-contractors, any of their personnel or those of Jisc and will take such action to deal with the issue in hand as reasonable in the circumstances.

19. Waiver

- 19.1. Failure by either Party to enforce any of the provisions of the Agreement will not be a waiver of such rights and will not affect the validity of the Agreement or that Party's rights to take subsequent action.

20. Changes

- 20.1. In order to continuously improve its operations and by giving the Customer sixty (60) days prior notice, Jisc may from time to time alter the Services, the service level agreements or these terms and conditions but not the Fees.
- 20.2. If the Customer cannot accept any alteration it may terminate the Agreement by giving Jisc not less than thirty (30) days' written notice at any time during the sixty day period in Clause 20.1. The notice given by the Customer can be effective at any time during the then current Contract Period. Jisc will promptly repay any payments already made for Services that would have been performed after the termination date including a pro-rated rebate of any annual Fees.
- 20.3. The Customer may change the selected Services in accordance with the process in the Call-Off Contract.
- 20.4. The Agreement may also be changed by the written agreement of the Parties; such written agreement shall state that it is intended to revise the Agreement.

21. Severability

- 21.1. If any competent authority finds any part of the Agreement to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable, the Agreement will be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary to remove the competent authority's findings but so as to allow the rest of the Agreement to remain valid and unaffected to the fullest possible extent.

22. Force majeure

- 22.1. Jisc will not be liable for delay or failure to perform obligations caused by any attack on its security or for any circumstances beyond its reasonable control, provided that it promptly gives the Customer written notice of such circumstances and uses reasonable endeavours to mitigate the delay or failure.

23. Notices

23.1. Any notice or written agreement may be given as follows:

- 23.1.1. by delivery recorded mail or courier to the other Party's authorised representative at any address shown in the Agreement, or to any other address as one Party has notified the other of, and will be valid on the date of recorded receipt, or
- 23.1.2. by fax to the other Party's authorised representative to any fax number shown in the Agreement, or to any other fax number as one Party has notified the other of, and will be valid at the time shown on a successful transmission report, or
- 23.1.3. by email to the email address of the other Party's authorised representative and will be valid at the time of sending unless the email system has generated an unsuccessful transmission or unsuccessful delivery report. Emails sent to Jisc's authorised representative must be copied to legal@jisc.ac.uk.

24. Dispute Resolution

24.1. In the event of a dispute between the Parties concerning the Agreement, the dispute resolution process set out in Clause 9 of the Call-Off Contract shall apply.

25. Legal construction

- 25.1. No agency, joint venture or partnership is created by the Agreement.
- 25.2. No term of the Agreement is enforceable by any person who is not a party to it whether relating to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 or otherwise.
- 25.3. The Parties agree to use the English language for all matters relating to the Agreement.
- 25.4. Before seeking redress to the English Courts under this Agreement, the Parties shall seek to resolve the matter in accordance with the process set out at Clause 24. If the matter remains unresolved following the Dispute Resolution Process either Party shall be entitled to pursue its rights at law.
- 25.5. The Agreement is governed by English law and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
- 25.6. The Agreement represents the entire agreement and understanding between the Parties in respect of its subject matter. Any terms and conditions of any purchase orders, acknowledgements or receipts issued by the Customer in connection with the Services will have no effect even if they contain statements to the contrary and it is agreed that Jisc will accept any such purchase orders, acknowledgements or receipts subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement only.
- 25.7. By submitting its purchase order for the Services, the Customer is deemed to have accepted these terms and conditions.
