CloudFormation Advance

Overview of Service

AWS CloudFormation provides a pain-free way to allow AWS users to quickly create and provision services in a repeatable, testable and auditable way. By publishing resources in the CloudFormation Registry, you provide AWS customers a friction-free way to include your services in their AWS solutions.

AWS CloudFormation Advance from Cloudsoft can help you curate, create, test and publish CloudFormation resources to be used by any AWS account in any region.

Pricing Models and Pricing

Customers trust CloudFormation to distribute approved applications, automate resource management across their organisation and ensure that services align with best practice and governance controls. The Advance Process from Cloudsoft supports you to choose, create, test and provision resources for your services.
