Security Architecture and Assessment

Baseel Limited is specialised in providing security architecture design. We can also undertake assessment of the existing cloud environment to ensure security controls are effective and efficient. We can also guide clients on remediation of the security weakness.

Features

- Design of cloud security architecture

- Oversee implementation of the cloud security architecture

- Design of security controls framework for cloud environment

- Establish assurance framework to ensure effectiveness and efficiency

- Undertake security assessments on the cloud framework

- Advise on the gap remediation

- Technology and Controls Selection

- Risk Management Frameworks- Setting up three lines of Defense

- Business Resilience

- Risk Assessment and Remediation

Benefits

- Reduced risks due to the improved security posture

- Improvements in efficiency and effectiveness of the security controls

- Our approach ensures repeatability and consistency.

- Align Enterprise Information Security Architecture with enterprise architecture.

- Enable rapid adaptation for business agility

- Achieve cost advantages through standardisation

- Enable cross-enterprise security requirements

- Comprehensive analysis of security controls and architecture