Your Journey

As our software is pre-configured and ready to go, onboarding your employees is quick and easy with minimal set-up required. We offer additional migration expertise to assist in moving your current system from on-premise to the cloud if required (additional cost).

Our first-class support is offered through email, online and via the telephone so no matter where you are support can be accessed easily. Our support consultants provide 2-hour, priority level 1 responses within standard office hours, with also the additional option of 24/7 support if required (on request, additional cost).

easy is with you every step of your journey to assist with everything from onboarding and offboarding, to customisation, training, migration or expansion (additional costs may be required for some additional services).
