

Service name

Business Architecture Services

Service description

Chimera Business Architecture services align business strategy and delivery with data, technology and service architectures to ensure cohesion between business objectives, data utilization, and technological capabilities. We pragmatically identify, assess, define and optimise business requirements, capability models and process mapping, and build efficiencies through seamless integration with wider enterprise architecture.

Service features and benefits

Service features

- Strategic Planning
- Stakeholder & Requirements Analysis
- Capability Modelling
- Business Process Mapping
- Service Architecture
- Information & Data Alignment
- Technology Alignment
- Change Management
- Performance Measurement
- Governance Framework

Service benefits

Alignment of data and technology to business architecture and requirements