1.4 Exit Costs

If a request for return of Customer data is logged, OneAdvanced will make the Customer data available in a machine-readable format nominated by OneAdvanced within a reasonable timeframe. If a different machine-readable format (other than the machine-readable format nominated by OneAdvanced) or human readable format is requested by the Customer, OneAdvanced will use its reasonable endeavours to assist with such request but will normally require ninety (90) calendar days' written notice of such preference. Delivery will be subject to availability of relevant resource or skillset and will be charged on a time and materials basis, at OneAdvanced's then-current rates.

On exit, all Customer data will be retained for a minimum period appropriate to the equipment and application requirements, unless specific requests are made otherwise, after which it will be destroyed. If requested, OneAdvanced will provide confirmation that we have purged and destroyed Customer data from any computers, storage devices and storage media that are to be retained by OneAdvanced after the end of the subscription period and the subsequent extraction of Customer data (if requested by the Customer).
