 Q4 2025 Special Enterprise Customer Promotion (see qualifying conditions below):

Enterprise Customer Promotion

This is a limited-time offer for large, enterprise customers purchasing specific Google Workspace licenses from Netpremacy through the UK Government's G Cloud 14 procurement framework. Here are the key details of the promotion:

The Offer

If you make a qualifying purchase, you will receive a free service bundle from Netpremacy that is valued at approximately £100,000.

This free bundle includes:

- Premier Partner Workspace Technical Support (TSS): A premium "break-fix" support service.
- Customer Success Service (CSS): A proactive service that includes a dedicated Customer Success Manager to help you get the most out of your Google Workspace deployment.

This free service package is provided for the entire duration of your G Cloud 14 Call Off contract with Netpremacy.

This Q4 promotion cannot be exchanged for a further licence discount beyond the existing pricing Bands shown above, it is intended to target the relevant enterprise customers with improved security, AI adoption and maximising the benefits of the software for the duration of the G Cloud 14 Call Off Contract.

How to Qualify for the Promotion

To be eligible, you must meet all of the following conditions:

1. Customer Status: The offer is open to:
 - Completely new customers to Netpremacy.
 - Existing Netpremacy customers whose contract is due for renewal in Q4 2025.
2. Timing: The purchase must be via a new G Cloud 14 Call Off Contract raised in Q4 2025 (between October 1, 2025, and December 31, 2025).
3. Contract Length: The new G Cloud 14 contract must be for a multi-year term.
4. Product: You must purchase the minimum quantity of either Google Workspace Enterprise Standard or Google Workspace Enterprise Plus.
5. Volume: The purchase must be for 3,000 or more licenses.
6. Vendor: The contract must be made with Netpremacy.

Benefits of the Free Service Bundle

Key benefits of the promotion include:

- Enhanced Security: You will receive security audits and recommendations for your Google Workspace environment.
- Change Management: A comprehensive package to help your organisation adopt the new tools, including support for implementing Google's latest AI capabilities.
- Training: Access to training tools maintained by Netpremacy.
- Targeted Support: An annual allocation of "Campaign Days" to deliver specific, targeted benefits for your deployment.

How to Claim

To take advantage of this offer, qualifying customers will be required to:

1. Accept the terms and conditions of the relevant services listing (Service ID: 7322 7771 8134 656; Service Name: Netpremacy Google Workspace Technical Support Services (TSS) and Customer Success Services (CSS)).
2. Sign a "Statement of Work (Free Of Charge)" that outlines the specific CSS services to be delivered.
