

Security Architecture Development

Service Description

SERVICE NAME:	Security Architecture Development
SERVICE DESCRIPTION:	Good security architecture is fundamental to delivering appropriate security for business or operational services. The Leonardo Security Architecture development service assists customers by assessing and delivering security architectures which appropriately manage the threats and risks to corporate or operational technologies.
KEY SERVICE FEATURES:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Security requirements capture• Tailored threat assessment for the services in scope• Risk assessment against the service being developed• Architecture developed to meet the specified risks and threats• Delivers a set of security artefacts supporting design and assurance• Can be tailored to required frameworks, e.g. MODAF, TOGAF, SABSA• Includes personnel, physical and procedural architecture as well as technical
KEY SERVICE BENEFITS:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Appropriate security controls are included in solutions• Allows risk to be appropriately managed• Demonstrates compliance with architectural/security standards e.g. NCSC / JSP604.• Specific threats and risks to the solution are addressed up-front• Provides confidence to stakeholders over service security• Reduces cost by addressing security early in projects

END OF DOCUMENT