Cyber Vulnerability Investigation Service

Service Description

SERVICE NAME:	Cyber Vulnerability Investigation Services
SERVICE DESCRIPTION:	Leonardo's CVI offering provides a socio-technical analysis of any capability, to understand where it may be vulnerable to Cyber-Effects. It provides a holistic picture of risk for the capability, and crucially considers more than just technology, recognising the complex interactions between people and technology/process and their criticality to risk.
KEY SERVICE FEATURES:	- Driven by risk and outcome - Focusses on attack paths through which a Cyber Effect can be delivered - Aligned with HMG, National and International Standards: ISO27001, SPF, GPG47 - Holistic approach differs to traditional security risk assessments - Provides deep-level investigation of cyber security and culture within organisation - Based on inter-relational models (people, process, technology) of the capability - Delivers tailored security assessment considering: technical, human and organisational elements - Includes in depth attack path analysis - Delivers targeted recommendations prioritised on benefit against ease of delivery - Vulnerabilities identified by system, type, against the operational impact
KEY SERVICE BENEFITS:	- Provides a deep understanding of the cyber-risks to a capability. - Use of attack paths establishes true root cause - Prioritised set of recommendations informs organisational security roadmap - Ensures security roadmap is based on evidenced findings - Vulnerabilities identified against current controls, operational impact - Report cross referenced to risks, attack paths, vulnerabilities and recommendations - Facilitates highly targeted remedial actions. - Provides confidence that investment decisions will deliver required benefits - Provide a platform for education and awareness among all employees - Provides evidence to support assurance/compliance requirements

END OF DOCUMENT