OVERVIEW

Our Experience

Computacenter have been delivering Software Value Added Reseller services for over 40 years. We provide Software services that reduce the complexity for our customers when managing complex Software agreements, improve visibility and control across the Software lifecycle, reduce risk and optimise costs and existing investments. We have over 450 Software subject matter experts globally across the Software Licensing team, renewals management, cloud and marketplace advisory, Group Partner Management commercial and procurement leads, vendor experts, Software sales specialists and SAM consultancy.

Why choose Computacenter?

As a services business with Strategic Supplier status to UK Government and group software revenues in excess of £1.7bn, we are best placed to deliver Cloud Software Resale services to the Public Sector. As well as being a reseller, we technically and commercially assure value for money in the assets our customers wish to source from us, offering advice and guidance to ensure value is obtained not only at the point of transaction but through the life of that asset. We currently deliver software resale services to a variety of large scale private and public sector customers globally and in the UK.
