

Coaching for digital excellence

esynergy has a cadre of leadership and executive coaches, all of whom are members of professional coaching bodies. They each have hundreds of hours of experience working with leaders from Senior Managers, through to CxO's, and national governments.

Today, success is less about what leaders know and more about how they think.

Service Features

- 1:1 sessions with a professional coach, digitally or in-person
- Optional group coaching bootcamps
- A safe space to navigate thoughts and behaviours
- An experienced thought partner to guide decision-making
- Identify and realise personal development goals
- A balance of support, challenge, and accountability for the leader
- Optional Wardley Mapping workshop for identifying measurable benefits and value
- Optional series of Wardley mapping workshops for setting strategy

Service Benefits

- Greater mental resilience and adaptability to change
- Increased engagement and reduced propensity to stress and burnout
- Greater role clarity
- Improved retention of talent
- Improved individual performance and skills
- Handling compliance, Promoting creativity, effective teams and many other areas
- Positive and proactive influence on organisational culture
- Take "Intra-departmental politics" out of strategic planning
- Clear identification of value from digital delivery
- Shaping of projects and programmes to optimise delivery of value benefits

