

Cloud Transformation Delivery

esynergy's cloud transformation service (Delivery, Project & Programme Management) helps clients drive programmes, manage projects to deliver ROI. We use GDS standards in order to recognise value early in the delivery improving productivity. Enabling and managing cloud hosting, migration, data-capture, integration and cloud native software development projects with expertise mitigating risk that impacts delivery.

Service Features

- Create iterative delivery plans for Cloud transformation programmes
- Shorter development cycles related to Cloud infrastructure delivery
- Methodologies using working software as the primary demonstration of progress
- Lead the collaborative planning process to define Cloud digital strategy
- Build products adhering to agreed deliverables with frequent progress demonstrations
- Iterative management methods TDD, continuous integration, refactoring and user stories
- Stakeholder management to drive transformation through Discovery, Alpha, Beta, Live
- Burnup charts, burndown charts, task boards, impediment logs, visibility charts
- Programme management, project management, UX, PMO, retrospectives, continuous improvement
- PMP, ITIL, MSP, stakeholder management, milestones, and governance

Service Benefits

- Working software early in development life cycle and continuous improvement
- Competitive pricing structure to maximise savings and early ROI
- Effective engineering practices and knowledge transfer to upskill existing workforce
- Extensive experience delivering Cloud services to the public sector
- Manages internal resource, to ensure continuous delivery and collaboration
- Encouraging active 'user' involvement to identify and respond to change
- Inspect and adapt to business changes
- Change control, risk, issue management and visibility of project status
- Effective management of digital projects: improve workflows, reduce infrastructure costs
- Beta live assessments

