RelativityOne: ECA/Repository Workspace: A RelativityOne ECA/Repository Workspace is used for Early Case Assessment and culling documents prior to review and/or processed data that needs to be hosted for additional searching and filtering throughout the project. Users can leverage visualizations, searching and certain analytics functions to cull before promoting potentially responsive documents to a Review workspace. An ECA/Repository Workspace cannot exceed 50mm documents, 10,000 unique views per month and cannot exceed 5 concurrent client users at any given time.

Inactive Data Hosting & Services: "Dormant - No User Access" and "Processing" database reactivation timeline will be quoted per workspace, and Client shall be invoiced at Technical Analyst/Litigation Support rates for all reactivation related labor costs. Separate charges will be made for processing databases, hosting databases and production sets. Client Media Storage charges commence in the fourth calendar month following receipt of such media (i.e., up to three (3) months of storage without incremental billings).

By utilizing the services, you acknowledge and agree to the following terms and conditions: Any use of features that involve Graph API's, including but not limited to data retrieval, analysis, or visualization, may be subject to additional costs imposed by the API manufacturer. These costs are separate from the charges associated with the services provided by Epiq.
