

PRICING DOCUMENT
Specialist Cloud Services
Technical and Management Consultants

Fuel Professional Services offer a range of pricing models. The following table details our standard day rates for Consultancy Services and is based upon our published SFIA rate card. The rates within the table are an all-inclusive day rate for named sites on a time and materials basis. We also offer a fixed price delivery model for SoW's, typically based on milestone delivery.

We have consistently scored well in the commercial weighting section when competing for work packages in the Public Sector and we are confident we can offer best value for money. Fuel will work with the you to offer best value for each contract and flexibility on the advertised rates would be considered.
