

Smart Places

We help public sector organisations to define and deliver their Smart Places aspirations, including strategy, business cases, procurement and operation, to deliver real economic benefits.

Features

- Smart City, Smart Towns and Smart Places innovation and strategy
- Cloud data and processing technology
- Connectivity types, data management and process integration
- Smart Places digital infrastructure roadmaps
- 5 Case model business case to identify and assess interventions
- Business requirements gathering and market engagement
- Procurement specification, design and operation
- Programme and project design and management
- Implementation services
- Service management, contract management and supplier management

Benefits

- Practical experience of steps towards Smart Places
- Key building blocks for Smart Places
- Understanding of technical landscape for Smart Places
- Robust business cases to secure investment and approval
- Clear vision combined with practical delivery plans
- Strong market ecosystem for service evolution
- Commercial and contract models for partnership delivery
- Engaged and supporting stakeholders and users
- Benefits management approach to ensure real world ongoing value
- Strong platform for further delivery