

Cloud Software Selection

Spirit helps public sector organisations to determine the optimal software delivery model to meet their requirements, including cloud/on premises deployment and off-the-shelf/bespoke design.

Features

- Business requirements gathering and market engagement
- Financial analysis of current and projected costs
- Requirements analysis and technical specifications
- Robust business cases using 5 Case Model
- Service management, operation and future proofing considerations
- Technical, commercial and contractual models for success
- Procurement specification, design and operation
- Implementation and migration support, stakeholder and user engagement
- Benefits realisation, solution optimisation, and health checks
- Project, Programme and Portfolio Management

Benefits

- Best value solution to meet requirements
- Clear division of responsibilities and transfer of risk
- User-centric services that evolve over time
- Secure, reliable, high performance solutions that deliver benefits
- Experience of major public sector software procurements
- Understanding of key drivers for delivery model selection
- Clear relationship between customer requirements and contract deliverables for success
- Strong service desk integration for control and resolution
- Defined monitoring, reporting and contract management models
- Benefits management approach to ensure ongoing value