In such cases, Zscaler will (i) suspend such Products only to the extent reasonably necessary to prevent any harm to Zscaler's network (for example, blocking offending source IP addresses); (ii) use its reasonable efforts to promptly contact Customer and give Customer the opportunity to promptly change the configuration of its server(s) accordingly and/or work with Customer to promptly resolve the issues causing the suspension of such Products; and (iii) reinstate any suspended Products immediately after any issue is abated.

5. Warranties

5.1 Mutual Warranty

Each party represents and warrants that it has the legal power and authority to enter into this Agreement.

Zscaler warrants that the SaaS and/or Software will (a) substantially conform to the Documentation; and (b) be provided in accordance with the SLAs.

If, upon investigating the cause of the incident, Zscaler determines that there is a defect in the Product, Zscaler will provide a remedy in the form of a workaround, or another version of the Product that includes a bug fix for the defect. Customer agrees to provide reasonable support information necessary to understand and resolve the incident, which may include log files, configuration files and/or error messages.

If Customer believes the warranty in Section 5.4 has been breached, Customer must notify Zscaler of the breach no later than thirty (30) days following the date the Deployment Services were provided, and Zscaler shall promptly correct or re-perform the Deployment Services if a breach of the warranty occurred. Without limiting any Service Credits incurred in the event Zscaler does not meet the SLAs, the remedies stated in this Section 5 are the sole remedies, and Zscaler's sole obligation, with respect to Products that fail to comply with the foregoing warranties.

5.7 Disclaimer of Warranties

Except for the express warranties set forth herein, all Products are provided on an "as is" basis. Zscaler expressly disclaims, to the maximum extent permissible under applicable law, all warranties, conditions, and other terms whether express, implied by common law, statute or otherwise, including without limitation any implied warranty of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, accuracy, noninfringement, or that the Products will be error-free.

Either party may disclose Confidential Information on a need-to-know basis to (a) its personnel, auditors and Affiliates who are subject to the same confidentiality obligations, and (b) its attorneys and accountants who are either subject to professional obligations of confidentiality or have agreed to be bound by confidentiality obligations at least as protective as those set out herein.

6.4 Protection

The Receiving Party will use at least the same level of care to prevent unauthorized use of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information as it uses for its own Confidential Information, but in no event less than a reasonable standard of care.

6.5 Compelled Disclosure

If the Receiving Party is compelled by law to disclose Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party, it shall provide the Disclosing Party with prior notice of such compelled disclosure, to the extent legally permitted, and reasonable assistance, at Disclosing Party's cost, if the Disclosing Party wishes to contest the disclosure.

6.6 Remedies

If the Receiving Party discloses or uses (or threatens to disclose or use) or the Disclosing Party reasonably believes that the Receiving Party may disclose or use any Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party in breach of the confidentiality protections hereunder, or if the Receiving Party is compelled to disclose (or is likely to become compelled to disclose) any Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party pursuant to Section 6.5, the Disclosing Party shall have the right, in addition to any other remedies available to it, to seek injunctive relief to enjoin such acts or seek a protective order regarding such acts.

Either party may terminate this Agreement and any Order: (a) if the other party is in material breach of any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and does not cure such material breach within thirty (30) days of receiving notice; or (b) if the other party becomes the subject of a petition in bankruptcy or any proceeding relating to insolvency, receivership, liquidation, or assignment for the benefit of creditors.

7.4 Effect of Termination

The following provisions shall survive the termination of this Agreement and all Orders: Section 3 (Payment), Section 4 (Subscription Rights; Intellectual Property Rights; and Restrictions;) other than Section 4.1, Section 5.7 (Disclaimer of Warranties), Section 6 (Confidential Information), Section 7.4 (Effect of Termination), Section 8 (Indemnity), Section 9 (Limitation of Liability), Section 10 (Data Privacy and Security), Section 11 (Export Control and Anti-Corruption), and Section 12 (General Provisions).

8.4 Customer Indemnity

Customer will defend and indemnify Zscaler from and against any claim brought by a third party against Zscaler arising from or related to Customer's violation of Section 4.4 of this Agreement.

12.4 Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be contrary to law, the provision shall be modified by the court and interpreted so as best to accomplish the objectives of the original provision to the fullest extent permitted by law, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

12.5 Assignment

Neither party may assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder, whether by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other party (not to be unreasonably withheld), except that either party may assign this Agreement in its entirety, without the consent of the other party, to (a) an Affiliate; or (b) in connection with a merger, acquisition, corporate reorganization, or sale of all or substantially all of its assets not involving a direct competitor of the other party. 12.7 Force Majeure

Neither party shall be liable for delay or non-performance of its obligations hereunder (or part thereof) if the cause of delay or non-performance is due to a Force Majeure Event. The party affected shall be relieved from its obligations (or part thereof) for the time that the Force Majeure Event lasts and hinders the performance of said obligations (or part thereof).
