Software License Terms

License Grant

The Company shall grant to the Customer a personal, non-exclusive, non-transferable (save as set out herein) licence to access and receive the benefit of the Licensed Software, including use by the Customer's Entities during the subscription period.

Customer Obligations

Customer shall, in its Use of the Licensed Software, adhere to the following terms:

- (a) Customer shall pay the Software Licence Fee in accordance with the terms of this Agreement;
- (b) Customer shall not delete, amend or otherwise alter any copyright or other ownership notices or legends displayed, contained in, or attached to the Licensed Software;
- (c) Customer shall not reverse compile or reverse engineer the Licensed Software, save where the necessary information has not been made available by the Company and as permitted by law;
- (d) Customer shall not exceed any permitted Number of Users or Type of Users set out in the Contract;
- (e) Customer shall not permit any third party to Use the Licensed Software, or the Documentation, nor shall Customer itself Use the Licensed Software, or the Documentation, on behalf of any such third party, without, in either case, obtaining the prior written consent of the Company.

License Expiry

On expiry of the Licence Period:

- (a) All rights granted to Customer under the licence to Use, access or receive the benefit of the Licensed Software shall cease;
- (b) Customer shall cease all activities authorised by the licence to Use or access and receive the benefit of (as appropriate) the Licensed Software;
- (c) Customer shall immediately pay to the Company any sums overdue to the Supplier under the licence to Use the Licensed Software.
