FREEDOM OF INFORMATION

- it shall consult with the Supplier in relation to the response to such request;
- in considering such a request it shall follow the guidance set out in this table;
- it shall consider in good faith any comments or suggestions by the Supplier as to what information should be provided as part of such response.

Part A: Information that may be disclosed without consulting Supplier (although the Supplier should still be notified of disclosure)

 - The Terms & Conditions of the Call-Off Contract, unless stated to be not on the Supplier standard terms. (This Call-Off Contract and any attachments cannot be disclosed – see reasons below.)
 - The total duration of this Call-Off Contract
- Pricing
 - The total value of this Call-Off Contract
- The Services and data provided as part of the Services

Information & whether the Buyer can confirm/deny its existence	FOIA exemption(s)	Explanation
This Call-Off Contract, and any attachments to the Call-Off Contract. (The Buyer can confirm the existence of the Call-Off Contract.)	Disclosure would prejudice commercial interests	The Call-Off Contract contains various information that is commercially sensitive. The information in question is detailed in the remainder of this table.
Details of the pricing other than the total contract value, such as: how the price is calculated, the individual fees, any discounts given. (The Buyer can confirm the existence of this information.)	Disclosure would prejudice commercial interests. The information constitutes a trade secret. Disclosure would be in breach of confidence.	The pricing for this Call-Off Contract has been specifically negotiated with the Buyer, based on the nature of the Services. The pricing was negotiated on a confidential basis. The Supplier cannot offer the same pricing to all its Buyers. Disclosure would damage the Supplier's ability to sell similar services as a commercially viable rate and cause the Supplier to lose its competitive edge.

(The Buyer can confirm the existence of this information.)	The information constitutes a trade secret. Disclosure would be in breach of confidence. Disclosure would prejudice commercial interests.	This information is the result of high-value investment by the Supplier into developing its services and constitutes the Supplier Intellectual Property. If this information became public, it would severely damage the Supplier. The information was disclosed to the Buyer in confidence to allow it to connect to and make the most of the Services.
Information about the Supplier business, including staff and structural changes, unless and until the Supplier makes such information publicly available. (The Buyer can confirm the existence of this information.)	Disclosure would be in breach of confidence. Disclosure would prejudice commercial interests.	This information was disclosed to the Buyer as a result of the relationship of trust that has arisen. The Supplier is careful about how such information is disclosed. If this information were to be disclosed in response to a FOIA request, this would be likely to cause damage to investor and supplier confidence in the Supplier, and could affect relations between the Supplier and its employees.

The Terms & Conditions of the Call-Off Contract, because they have been amended following negotiation with the Buyer. (The Buyer can confirm the existence of the Call-Off Contract.)	Disclosure would prejudice commercial interests	The Supplier has made various amendments to the Terms & Conditions that it would not normally agree to and which are specific to the Buyer. Disclosure would harm the Supplier's negotiating and commercial position in the market place.

Interest will accrue on a daily basis from the due date up to the date of actual payment, after as well as before judgment. In addition, the Supplier shall, on giving written notice to the Buyer, be entitled to suspend provision of the Services with immediate effect until the overdue amount is paid in full.
- 3.4. If under this Call-Off Contract the Buyer agrees in the Call-Off Contract to pay a minimum fee over any particular period, and it does not meet such minimum fee requirement in that period, the Supplier shall be entitled to invoice the Buyer for the difference between the relevant fees actually payable in respect of that period and such minimum fee. 4. NATURE AND USE OF THE SERVICES

- 4.1. The Supplier's services are not intended to be used as the sole basis for any business decision, nor to relieve the Buyer of its obligation to comply with its own obligations under Applicable Law. Supplier Data is based upon data which is provided by third parties, the accuracy and/or completeness of which it would not be possible and/or economically viable for the Supplier to guarantee. The Supplier's services also involve models and techniques based on statistical analysis, probability and predictive behaviour.  - 4.1.2. any failure of the Services to achieve any particular result for the Buyer or any Permitted User.

4.2. The Buyer agrees that it will:

- 4.2.1. use the Services, and/or Supplier Materials provided under this Call-Off Contract, for the Permitted Purpose only and in accordance with any Documentation;
- 4.2.2. not sell, transfer, sub-license, distribute, commercially exploit or otherwise make available to, or use for the benefit of, any third party any of the Services, and/or Supplier Materials provided under this Call-Off Contract, except as specifically permitted by this Call-Off Contract;
- 4.2.3. not (and will not allow any third party to) adapt, alter, modify, reverse engineer, de-compile or otherwise interfere with any Supplier Materials provided under this Call-Off Contract without the prior written consent of the Supplier or as otherwise permitted by law; and
- 4.2.4. only take such copies of the Supplier Materials as are reasonably required for the use of the Supplier Materials in accordance with this Call-Off Contract.

The Buyer shall ensure that any User Access Device(s) are not copied, interfered with and/or used in any unauthorised way.
- 5.4. It is the Buyer's responsibility to inform the Supplier of any unauthorised use and/or disclosure of any User Access Device so that the Supplier can suspend or disable that User Access Device as appropriate. The Buyer shall remain liable for any and all fees for the Services incurred in connection with the use of any User Access Device, until the Buyer has informed the Supplier.
- 5.5. Each party will cooperate and share information with the other as reasonably necessary from time to time (including in circumstances where the parties may individually or collectively have caused harm to end consumers) to ensure that both parties discharge their regulatory obligations, and in order to help achieve positive consumer outcomes.
- 5.6. Consumer Duty (where applicable). Without prejudice to the general obligations under Clause 5.5 in respect of consumer harm, each of the parties agree that in the event Consumer Duty applies in the provision or use of the Services (as appropriate), the parties shall comply with Consumer Duty and the following provisions will apply:
 - 5.6.1. Where Consumer Duty applies in the Buyer's use of Services the Buyer must determine itself how to distribute products in a way that supports good customer outcomes.
 - 5.6.2. Permitted Purpose. The Buyer must comply with the provisions of Clause 15.1 including

In addition to any audit rights described within this Clause 5, the Supplier reserves the right to assess and monitor whether the Buyer is in compliance with the Permitted Purpose and any usage rights and restrictions in the Call-Off Contract and its obligations under this Call-Off Contract. The Buyer will provide the Supplier with any materials the Supplier reasonably requests in order to conduct such an assessment. The Buyer is also obligated to report back to the Supplier any non-compliances with the Permitted Purpose and any usage rights or restrictions. In the event that in the Supplier's reasonable judgement the Buyer's use of the Services is not compliant with the Permitted Purpose or any usage rights and restrictions set out in the Call-Off Contract or the Buyer is in breach of its obligations in relation to Consumer Duty, the following process applies:

5.6.2.1. the Supplier will notify the Buyer in writing specifying the non-compliance and grant the Buyer 15 days to remedy any non-compliances and ensure its use of the Services complies with the Permitted Purpose and any usage rights and restrictions.

5.6.2.2. If the Supplier in its sole discretion judges the Buyer to still be non-compliant after such remediation period set out in Clause 5.6.2.1, the Supplier reserves the right to suspend the Buyer's use of the Services by serving written notice and grant the Buyer a period of remediation of 28 days after receipt of the suspension notice within which to remedy the non-compliance.

5.6.2.3. In the event of the non-compliance being remedied within the remediation period set out in Clause 5.6.2.2 the Supplier will lift the suspension. Otherwise, the Supplier reserves the right to terminate this Call-Off Contract immediately by serving written notice to the Buyer in the event that either:

5.6.2.3.1. the non-compliance is not capable of remedy; or

The Buyer agrees to share with the Supplier any documentation or management information ("MI") the Buyer generates as a result of its outcome monitoring involving Supplier products.
- 5.6.6. Reporting. The following provisions apply:
- 5.6.6.1. if the Buyer identifies that it or another firm in its distribution chain is not delivering good outcomes for retail customers, it must promptly notify the Supplier; or

 - 5.6.6.3. notwithstanding any suspension of the Services, each party is obligated under Consumer Duty to notify the Financial Conduct Authority if it becomes aware that any other firm in the distribution chain is not or may not be complying with Principle 12 under Consumer Duty. Each party shall be responsible for its own costs incurred in such reporting.
- 5.7. Without prejudice to the general obligations under Clause 5.1, each of the parties shall in connection with this Call-Off Contract:
- 5.7.1. comply with the Anti-Corruption Requirements and the Anti-Slavery Requirements;
