Cloud Adaptive PMO Services

Overview

Baringa's Cloud Adaptive PMO service supports all domains of delivery in a way that can rapidly react in response to change or need, with the common focus on delivering Strategy, providing Transparency and driving Predictability. This includes proactive management of cyber security, digital risk, and data privacy across all programmes and portfolios. We provide transparency to senior leaders of the state of their investment initiatives to enable data-driven decision making & strategy realisation. Our PMO services also support the integration of AI-driven insights, while ensuring compliance with cyber and privacy requirements. We embed a governance framework within the client's organisation to drive significant long-term improvement in the way change is delivered. Our in-house expertise in PPM tooling help shape the right client environment. Through smarter deployed tooling we enable data-driven insight, decision-making, single source of truth and automation. Complimentary PMaaS / PMOaaS available.
