Rimini Street and ServiceNow

Transform Accounts Payable Operations with Rimini Consult™

"Twentieth century systems have created a mess of complexity that hinders 21st century innovation. ServiceNow's partnership with Rimini Street gives customers a more unified, intelligent platform to maximize their existing software investments, for faster paths to transformation. Together, we are enabling a brighter future where technology unlocks unprecedented potential."

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer at ServiceNow

Modernize, Automate, and Streamline Your AP Processes

Finance leaders are facing increasing pressure to optimize their accounts payable operations while maintaining accuracy and reducing fraud risk. Manual processing of invoices, limited visibility into payment status, and fragmented processes create unnecessary complexity and drain valuable resources and time.

The Challenge: Manual Processes Create Hidden Costs

The modern accounts payable landscape is complicated by high-volume manual data entry into multi systems, often by a swivel seat, separate and siloed systems of record, and time-intensive processing and validation. Organizations particularly struggle with:

INCREASE PRODUCTIVITY
Inefficient processing of emailed PDF invoices requiring manual entry into ERP systems

REDUCE RISK
Risk of errors and potential fraud due to manual processing

INCREASE VISIBILITY
Limited visibility for suppliers into payment status, resulting in time-consuming inquiries and delayed resolutions
