

SERVICE DEFINITION

Information Assurance/Cyber Security Consultancy

Giltar Information Security Ltd

What the service is

The service will help clients manage information security and cyber security risks. The service is wide ranging and includes assistance to help with certifications (e.g. ISO27001), legislative compliance (e.g. GDPR, NIS) right through to guidance on implementing full organisational risk management strategies in accordance with established frameworks (NIST 800 series)

Government Classifications (GSCP)

The services can be provided for all levels of Government Classifications dependent on successful transfer of existing clearances

Ordering and Invoicing

The services can be purchased at an hourly, half daily or daily rate. Invoices are issued monthly with 28 day terms of payment

How buyers can terminate a contract

In accordance with call off contract