Pricing 2026

Pricing for TheHomeUserGuide™ has been kept as simple as possible.

The prices are based on:

- Number of unit types (different floor plans)
- 2D or 3D floorplans (see examples on the right)
- Number of units

The calculation is:

- no. unit types (2D) x £450 +
- no. unit types (3D) x £1500 +
- no. units x £30 pa

An example calculation is on the next slide.

Example calculation

EXAMPLE COSTING A:

100 units. 10 types.

10 unit types (2D) x £450 = £4,500

Ongoing licences:
£30 per home (100) per annum = £3,000 pa

Single development licence* = £600 pa

EXAMPLE COSTING B:

50 units. 3 types.

3 unit types (3D) x £1,500 = £4,500

Ongoing licences:
£30 per home (50) per annum = £1,500 pa

Single development licence* = £600 pa

*a single development licence is required for each unique site. This licence covers the creation and maintenance of each individual development site.

20 hotspots are included for each floor plan (hotspot content not included)

Discounts are available if purchased as a wider suite of services
