

ReDA – for Clinical Trial Data Management

Pricing Document G-Cloud 15

www.infonetica.net
enquiries@infonetica.net
+44 (0) 208 334 6900

Service

Provision of ReDA - a cloud-based Clinical Trial Management System (CTMS) used by research hospitals, research intensive universities and government bodies.

Pricing

Annual Licence

The average annual licence fee for ReDA is £18,000.

Licence fee includes:

- Provision of live and test environments
- Hosting, data back-up, disaster recovery and business continuity services
- Service & Support Desk
- Single sign-on
- API
- Ongoing system maintenance
- Software and new feature updates
- End of contract data extraction

Onboarding

Onboarding support includes:

- Training and support for system administrators
- User documentation
- Data migration
- Internal communications process and content support to help embed the new system across the institution/organisation

This is charged at £1,100 per day and the total cost is dependent on the services required by the customer.