Authentication Software

(FortiAuthenticator/FortiToken)

Authenticator Software

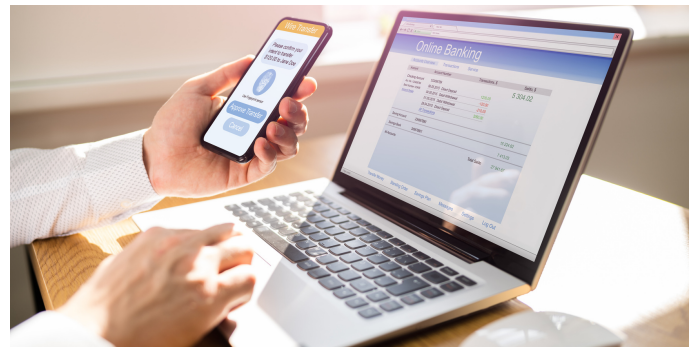

FortiAuthenticator/ FortiToken

FortiAuthenticator provides centralised authentication management, supporting two-factor authentication (2FA), single sign-on (SSO), and certificate-based access control.

FortiToken offers secure 2FA through hardware, software, and mobile tokens with one-time passwords and push notifications. Together, they enable robust, multi-factor authentication for secure access across the organisation.

Benefits include

- Enhanced security with multi-factor authentication
- Increased user productivity with single sign-on
- Centralised access control and policy enforcement
- Streamlined authentication management and reduced overhead
- Improved compliance with industry standards and regulations
- Convenient self-service capabilities for users
- Scalable and flexible deployment across the organisation
- Comprehensive visibility and auditing of authentication activities
- Strengthened overall security posture and risk mitigation

Authenticator Software

From multi-factor authentication to scalable and flexible deployment options, FortiAuthenticator and FortiToken allow you to simplify and centralise the management of user identity information.

Detailed authentication activity

Log detailed authentication activity to help track and audit user access attempts across systems and applications.

Self-service password management

Provides a convenient and user-friendly interface for users to regain access to their accounts independently.

Push notification approval for enhanced security

Implement an additional layer of verification through push notification approvals.
