Service Description: Data Analytics

We design end-to-end reporting infrastructure with an optimised pipeline between data sources and business insight. We work with your teams to understand your goals and data use cases, breaking down silos and merging datasets across functions to surface business operations and service insights.

Building a Strong Data Culture

Turn data complexity into clarity. We are committed to partnering with you to modernise data, unlock insights, and build a data-driven enterprise powered by advanced analytics.

Create an intuitive, inclusive view for everyone: Share engaging data visualisations that are meaningful to technical and non-technical audiences, built on a clear understanding of needs and preferences.

Respond more rapidly to insight driven by your data: Shift from retrospective weekly or monthly performance views to near-real-time tracking, taking action sooner and delivering value earlier.

Scale the business value of your data with self-service: Empower your teams by making data, insight and analytics immediately accessible to the teams and communities that need them.

Features:

Data Requirements Workshops	Data Pipelines
Power BI Solution Design and Development	Real-Time Data Visualisation
Predictive Analytics	Security and Governance
Data Warehouse/ Dataverse Implementation	Low-code No-code Architecture

Benefits:

Business Operational and Performance Insights	Data-driven Decision Making
Real-time Service Analytics	Secure Business Intelligence
Stakeholder Reporting Automation	User Centric Solutions
Data Policy Assurance	Accelerates Business Processes

How we plan the service

CloudSource provides a flexible, collaborative approach to Data and Analytics Services.

Our dedicated project management office specialises in delivering Data and Analytical projects. Our team has depth of experience across all Data and Analytics lifecycle stages, including supporting System and Data access request processes.

Our methodology follows a best-practice, GDS-aligned process. It delivers Agile Scrum with an overarching waterfall governance framework that can serve as the foundation for an Alpha project stage.

Throughout the timeboxed assessment we collaborate with customers and partners using a one-team, one-goal approach.

A Project plan and milestones are aligned with deliverables. Highlight Reports (HLR) are delivered regularly to provide a clear view of the Project's progress and activity status, fostering high confidence in achieving the desired outcome.
