

Automated Content Creation for UK Public Sector Digital Services

AI-powered content generation for government communications

Streamlined content workflows with compliance and accessibility built-in

Faster Content Production

Reduce content creation time by up to 70% with AI-powered automation.

Improved Accessibility

Automatic WCAG compliance ensures all content is accessible to citizens with disabilities.

Consistent Quality

Maintain high standards across all content with automated quality checks and style enforcement.

Transform Public Services

- Purpose-built for UK public sector content needs and government communications
- Full WCAG 2.2 AA accessibility compliance with automated checking
- UK data residency with government-grade security and GDPR compliance
- Seamless integration with GOV.UK publishing and existing CMS platforms

Service Overview

Automated Content Creation SaaS empowers UK public sector organizations to produce high-quality, compliant digital content at scale. Using advanced AI and natural language processing, the platform generates accessible, engaging content for websites, public communications, policy documents, and citizen-facing services. The service streamlines content workflows, ensures WCAG accessibility compliance, and maintains brand consistency across all government digital touchpoints.

Core Capabilities

- AI-powered content generation for government communications
- Automated accessibility compliance checking and formatting
- Brand consistency enforcement across digital channels

Key Features

AI-powered content generation with natural language processing technology

Advanced AI creates high-quality content tailored to public sector communication needs,

Automated WCAG 2.2 AA accessibility compliance checking and formatting

Built-in accessibility tools ensure all generated content meets WCAG 2.2 AA standards for

Multi-format output supporting web, PDF, email, and social media channels

Generate content in multiple formats optimized for different platforms including websites,

Brand consistency enforcement with centralized style guides and templates

Maintain consistent tone, terminology, and branding across all content with centralized

Content approval workflows with version control and audit trails

Structured approval processes track changes, maintain version history, and provide full audit trails for compliance.

Secure cloud-based platform with UK data residency and GDPR compliance

All content and data stored securely in UK data centers with full GDPR compliance and

Integration with existing CMS, document management, and publishing systems

Seamlessly connects with current content management systems, SharePoint, GOV.UK

Real-time collaboration tools for distributed teams and stakeholders

Enable multiple users to collaborate on content simultaneously with role-based permissions and commenting features.

Service Benefits

Faster Content Production

Reduce content creation time by up to 70% with AI-powered automation.

Improved Accessibility

Automatic WCAG compliance ensures all content is accessible to citizens with disabilities.

Consistent Quality

Maintain high standards across all content with automated quality checks and style enforcement.

Cost Efficiency

Lower content production costs by reducing manual effort and external agency dependence.

Regulatory Compliance

Built-in compliance features ensure content meets government standards and accessibility requirements.

Summary & Key Advantages

Why Choose This Service

- Purpose-built for UK public sector content needs and government communications
- Full WCAG 2.2 AA accessibility compliance with automated checking
- UK data residency with government-grade security and GDPR compliance
- Seamless integration with GOV.UK publishing and existing CMS platforms
- Scalable from small teams to large multi-departmental implementations
- Comprehensive support with training, onboarding, and tiered SLAs

DATASUMI

Email: sales@datasumi.com

Web: www.datasumi.com