Pricing Approach and Service Delivery

Pixel Group is a specialist supplier of cloud projects and services across all sectors, with particular expertise within Government. Pixel has extensive experience supporting government departments through mission-critical cloud transformation programmes and services including legacy, inherited and heritage platform application replacements, remediations and modernisation and all related technology/digital supplier migration and transition initiatives.

Our service delivery can be based flexibly on the individual Buyer's requirements, including:

- Time and Material – Day rate per resource against the rate card matrix.
- Fixed price Work Package – based on outcome-based deliverables.
- Hybrid approach – based on individual requirements.

The day rates for the services are based upon the SFIA framework and can be found below.
