

Just After Midnight Pricing

Platform: G-Cloud 15 Lot 3: Cloud Support Supplier: Just After Midnight

Pricing Approach

Pricing for Cloud Support services under G-Cloud 15, Lot 3 is determined on a per-buyer basis and reflects the specific requirements defined at the point of call-off.

All pricing is based on the role-based day rates published on the G-Cloud Digital Marketplace for Lot 3 (Cloud Support). This document does not restate those rates, as total costs depend on the buyer's agreed scope of services, delivery approach, and duration of the call-off contract.

All prices are exclusive of VAT.

Charging Models

Services under Lot 3 (Cloud Support) may be delivered using one or both of the following charging models, as agreed with the buyer and documented in the call-off contract:

- Monthly Cloud Support

Ongoing cloud support may be provided as a recurring monthly service. The scope, service levels, and support activities are agreed with the buyer and defined within the call-off contract.

- Time and Materials

Cloud support activities, including consultancy and DevOps support that fall within the scope of Lot 3, may be delivered on a time-and-materials basis using the published role-based day rates.

Scope of Services

Buyers may include cloud consultancy and DevOps support within their G-Cloud call-off contract where these services are directly related to Cloud Support and fall within the scope of Lot 3.

Exclusions

Unless explicitly included within the call-off contract, the following are excluded from pricing:

- Cloud hosting or infrastructure costs
- Third-party software licences or subscriptions
- Services that fall outside the scope of Lot 3 (Cloud Support)

Expenses

No additional charges are applied unless agreed in advance with the buyer.

Where applicable, travel and subsistence expenses are charged at cost with no markup and must be agreed prior to being incurred.

Price Assurance

Buyers are only charged for services delivered in accordance with their G-Cloud call-off contract. There are no hidden charges or termination fees.

Prices are valid for the duration of the G-Cloud 15 framework and may be reduced for individual buyers.
