Governance as a Service

Company Overview

AHLC Solutions is a Private Limited Company that was founded by its current owner managers. Since our inception in 2017, we have carved out a reputation as a trusted Agile Cloud Business Change and Leadership company.

What we do

What is the main barrier to embracing the Cloud? Supporting your staff and customers to understand what will change and how. We will work with you to create the story about change, to take your people on the journey to ensure that moving to the Cloud is a success.

AHLC Solutions helps organisations really understand how to use cloud technology to be better at what they do.

We combine change management talent with specific expertise in health and public sector to bring a deeper understanding of our customers' challenges and opportunities. At our core is years of experience that enables us to lead in a uniquely collaborative and incremental approach to creating the best outcome for our customers.

Public Sector Experience

We have worked extensively with public sector organisations, including National, Regional and local NHS organisations. Our standing as a trusted provider of solutions to the Public Sector is demonstrated by our selection for the G-Cloud Framework and the Digital Outcomes and Specialist Services Framework.

How we do it

Our agile change management methodology and tools deliver a subtle yet effective client centred approach to ensuring change is managed as smoothly as possible.
