

PARICO

G-Cloud 15: Service Definition Document

LUMIN Cross Domain Impex Services

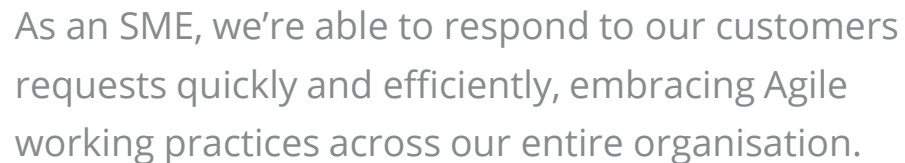

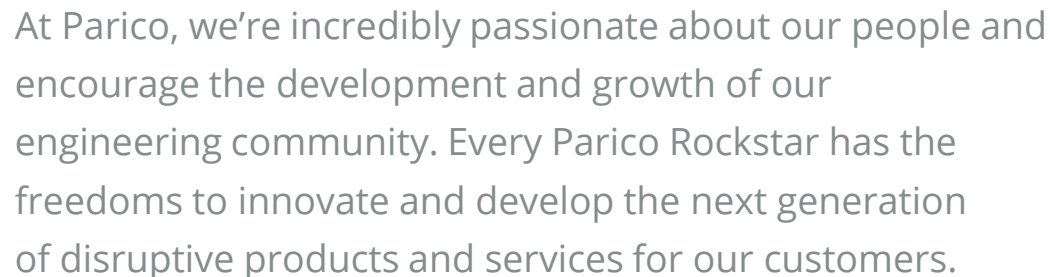

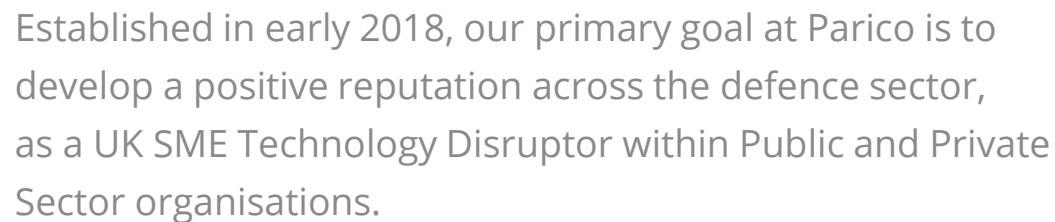

Parico's Lumin Import/Export (Impex) and Secure Browse Down solution enables users of to simply, safely, and securely, import and export data, cross security domains, in accordance with the National Cyber Security Centre (NCSC) Import and Export patterns.

FEATURES

- Transfer data securely, uni-directionally and bi-directionally
- Transfer data from UNCLASSIFIED endpoints to SECRET and TOP SECRET
- Transfer and consume 'dirty' data in secure and user-friendly manner
- Maintain confidentiality, security and integrity of the high-side destination platform
- Leverages 'Hardsec' Security Enforcing Functions including Garrison, OakDoor and ForcePoint
- Supports Air-Gapped environments and deployments
- Portable and ruggedised deployed capability available for Front Line Commands
- Transforms Real-Time and Non-Real Time to validated SISL objects
- Provides cryptographic signing for all transactions including 2FA/MFA for operations
- Connected to the MODNet Core Network at OFFICIAL and SECRET

BENEFITS

- Customisable Automation and Orchestration transformation workflows via Graphical User Interface.
- Delivered by Security Cleared (SC/DV) technical cloud architects and engineers
- Simple and intuitive user experience with rich Graphical User Interface
- NIST 800-207 compliant Zero-Trust architecture and Secure-by-Design by default
- Independently deployable, modular and containerised Kubernetes services
- Horizontal and vertical scaling to manage capacity and demand

BUSINESS WINNING DIRECTOR

E: SCOTT.YOUNGSON@PARICO.CO.UK

T: 01420 446450

M: 07584 864178

