Dalux InfraField Pro Pricing for G-Cloud 15

We offer both Project Subscription Pricing and Company Agreement Pricing options to suit our clients' requirements.

To support your team's success, you will have full access to our Customer Success Management team, ready to assist with any questions or issues that may arise. Furthermore, a Dedicated Account Manager will be assigned to you, providing personalised guidance and ensuring smooth operation throughout the duration of your contract.

Implantation, training and technical support are provided at zero cost.

Project Subscription Pricing

Project subscriptions are designed to offer substantial value, including support for One Named Project. Project subscriptions offer:

- Unlimited users.
- Unlimited storage.
- Free implementation, training and technical support.
- Free dedicated account management.

Pricing for project subscription is based:

- On the total construction cost of any one named project.
- Priced on a monthly subscription.
- Minimum three (3) month subscription.
- Billed quarterly in advance.
- 30 days payment terms.

As our pricing is based on the named project's total construction cost, we cannot provide pricing for every scenario in this document. Further pricing available upon request.

Project Total Construction Cost (incl. VAT)	Monthly Subscription Fee
£1,000,000	£360
£10,000,000	£925

Company Agreement Pricing

Company Agreements are designed to offer maximum flexibility and scalability, including an unlimited number of projects. Company Agreement offer:

- Unlimited projects, ensuring scalability to support your growth.
- Unlimited users.
- Unlimited storage.
- Free implementation and technical support.
- Free dedicated account management.
- Included is a range of tools for managing company-wide information, standards and reporting.

Pricing for company agreements is based:

- On the yearly turnover of the licensee.
- Priced on a monthly subscription.
- Minimum twelve (12) month subscription.
- Typical thirty-six (36) month subscription.
- Billed quarterly in advance.
- 30 days payment terms.

As our pricing is based on the licensee's turnover, we cannot provide pricing for every scenario in this document. Further pricing available upon request.
