SERVICE DEFINITION

DevOps / DevSecOps

INTRODUCTION

Decillion Digital defines target architectures that align applications with DevSecOps best practices. We leverage automation, analytics, and industry-leading tools such as Jenkins and Docker to strengthen security, enhance compliance, and accelerate delivery velocity. Our holistic approach includes maturity assessments, roadmap development, and strategic skills investment to reduce costs, minimise failure rates, and drive continuous improvement.

SERVICE FEATURES

- Conduct deep-dive assessments to accelerate software delivery velocity.
- Establish organisation-wide DevSecOps processes and implementation frameworks.
- Run workshops to build foundational understanding of DevSecOps principles.
- Define a clear architectural vision supported by a practical delivery roadmap.
- Evaluate tooling and solution providers to ensure optimal technology fit.
- Review and address security vulnerabilities across the software supply chain.
- Implement CI/CD pipelines and toolsets across Jenkins, Azure, and AWS environments.
- Strengthen code quality with automated testing, including functional and security tests.
- Provide dashboards for full visibility of processes, performance, and key metrics. Enable automated incident synchronisation to improve cross-team collaboration and response times.

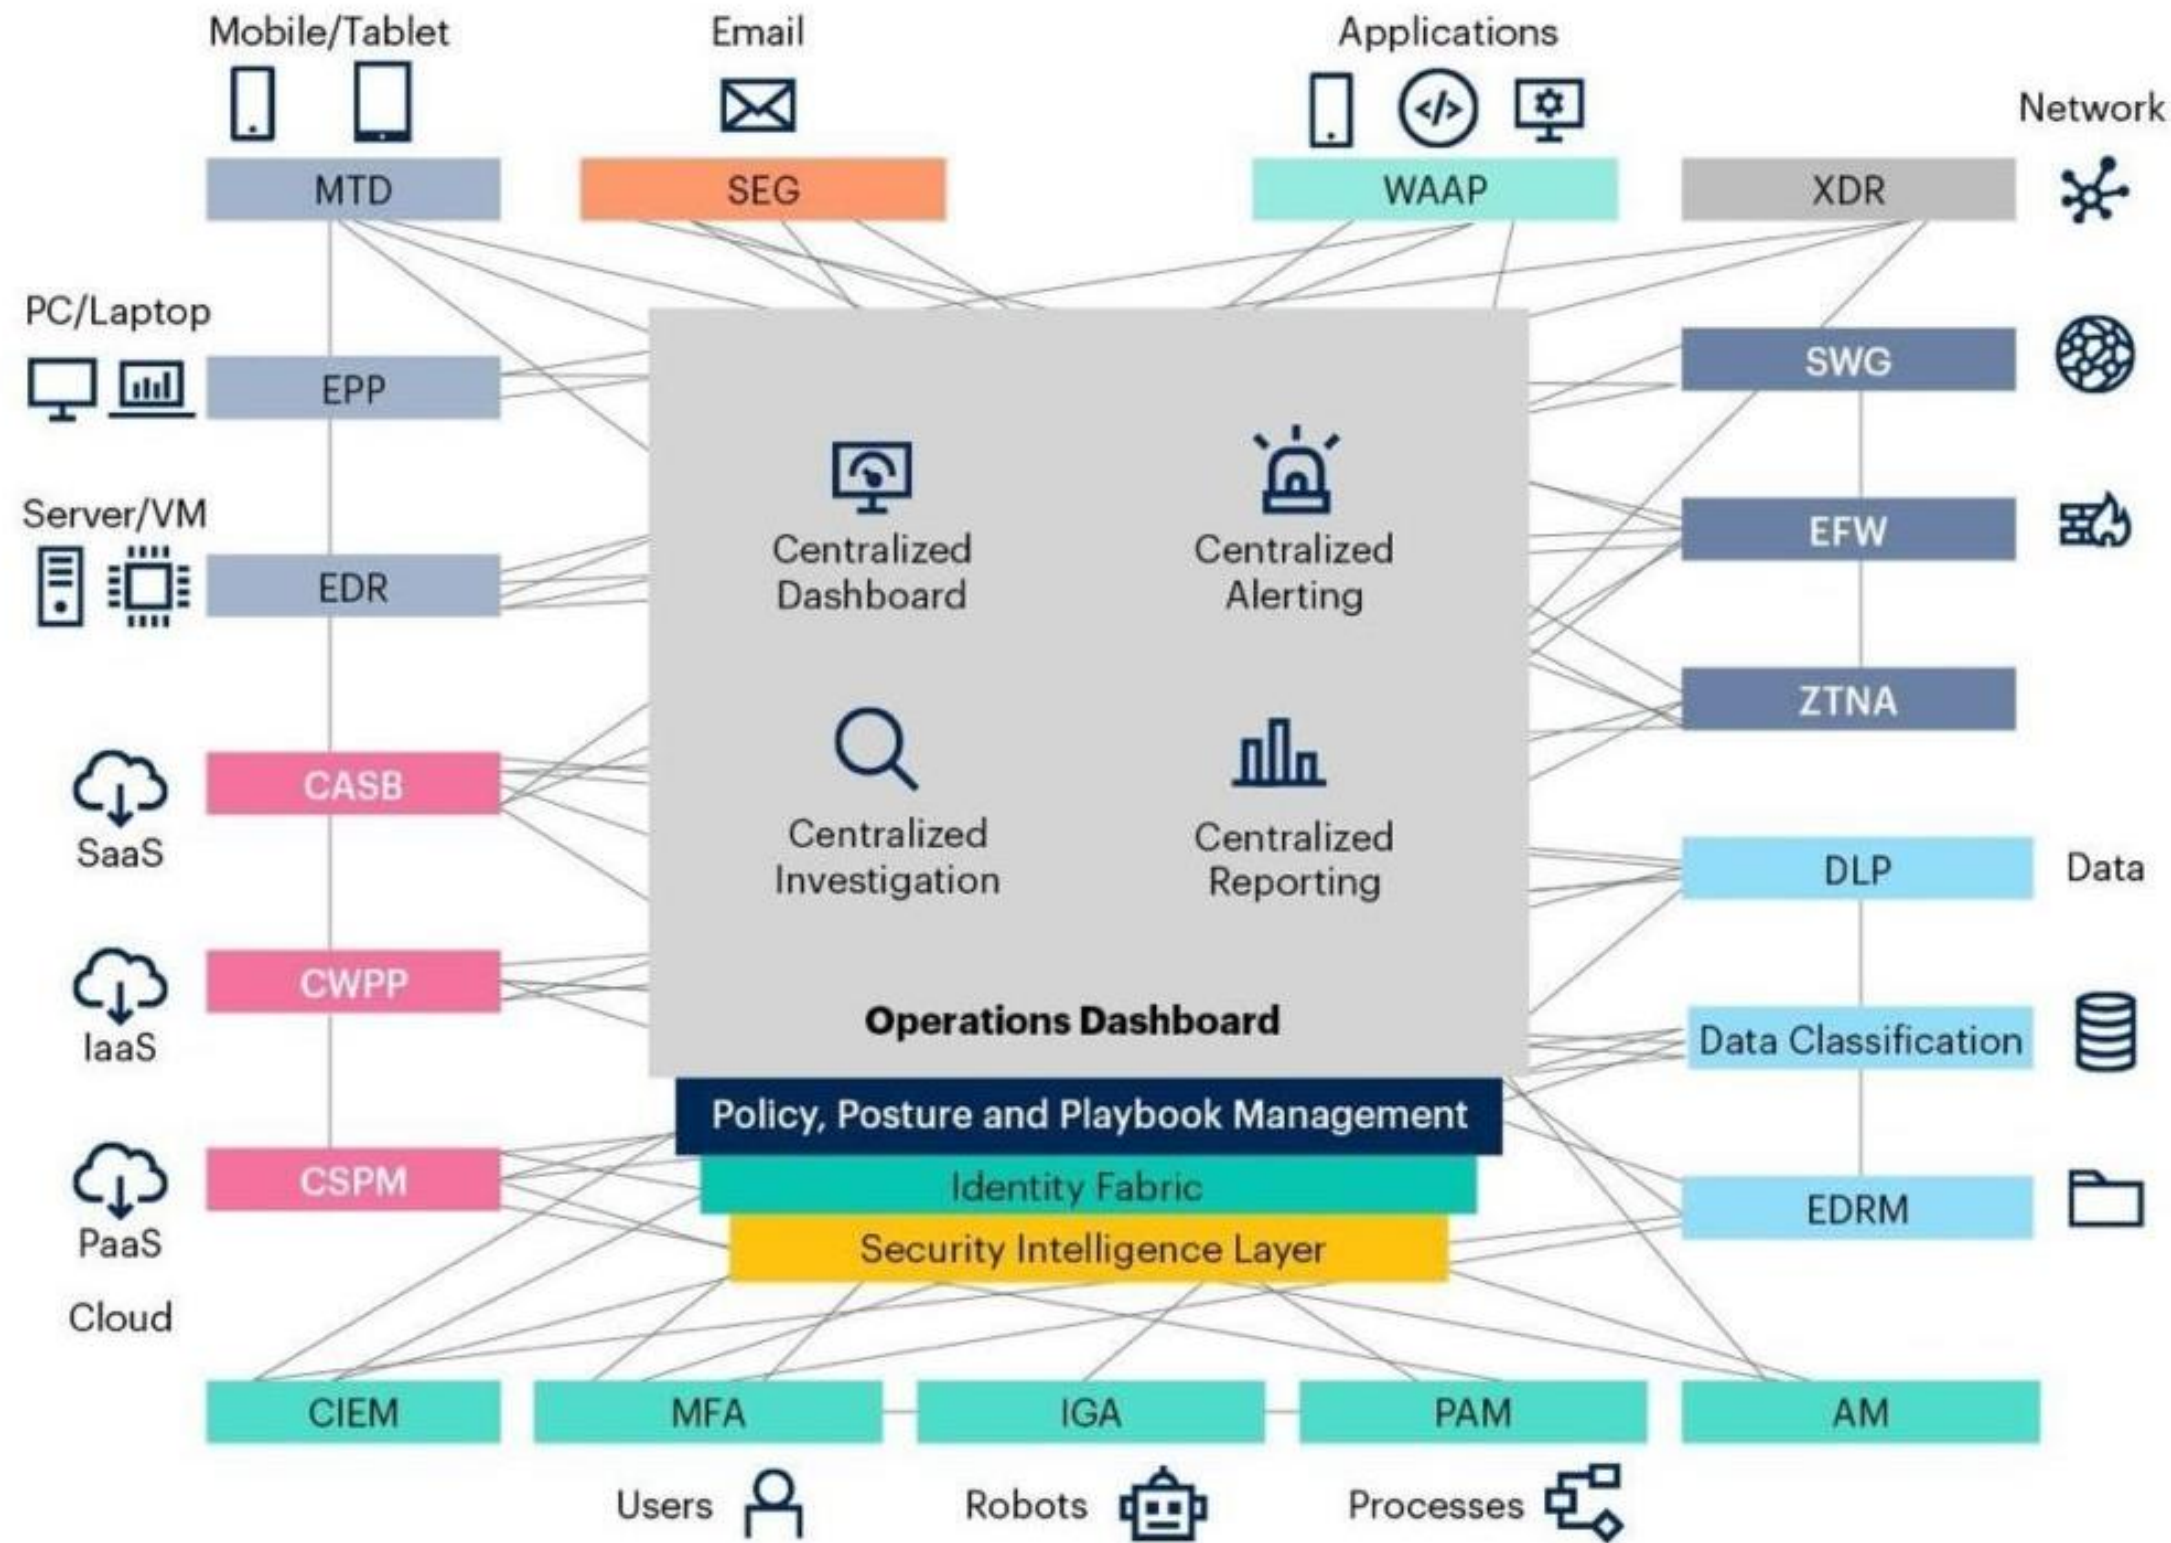

SERVICE BENEFITS

- Coach the wider organisation on the value and practical benefits of DevSecOps.
- Accelerate time-to-market through streamlined, automated delivery pipelines.
- Prioritise quality and repeatability to ensure consistent, reliable releases.
- Deliver vendor-agnostic solutions that span multiple technologies and platforms.
- Demonstrate measurable improvements in delivery performance and outcomes.
- Align teams through a collaboratively defined roadmap across all stakeholders.
- Upskill internal staff through integrated team-working and hands-on enablement.
- Provide faster, large-scale feedback loops for continuous code improvement.
- Enhance stability and resilience across core services and applications.
- Embed security from the outset, ensuring secure-by-design delivery practices.
