The Employee Scheme That Makes Recognition Simple

More often than not, businesses fall short of looking after their people. At Each Person, we aim to provide employees with the ultimate 'feelgood' package to create a positive work environment and culture for all. Each Person aims to address the issue of unhappy and unmotivated employees and help businesses connect better with employees by making them feel valued.

Why Happy People Are Your Priority

Each Person matters and deserves recognition for a job well done. With current worldwide financial impacts, it's more important than ever for businesses to adapt and support employees' needs and wellbeing.

66%

will quit their job if they don't feel recognised

50%

feel more valued with a simple Thank You

31%

lower employee turnover with regular recognition

65%

have more energy than unhappy employees

Your employees are what makes a company successful, and when they're well rewarded, they work harder, smarter and stick around longer.

Incorporate happiness into your work culture today and every day!

The New Approach to Employee Recognition

It's more important than ever to ensure that your business provides mental, physical and financial support for its employees. That's why we've ensured Each Person offers a flexible, highly customisable platform with robust features.

Small Actions Can Make A Big Difference

Each Person is the only employee reward scheme that aligns with fighting climate change. We believe in a positive work culture that positively impacts the environment. In 2020 we partnered with Carbon Footprint to give Each Person members the opportunity to give something back and tackle climate change head-on. So, in just a few clicks, your employees can donate their Epoints & plant as many trees as they want - making Eco-change easy! We also donate 5% of our profits to the scheme.

With more companies understanding the need for action, it has never been a better time to make a difference.

Don't Just Take Our Word for It

Sitel is a leading global provider of customer experience solutions and products to help brands enhance and reimagine customer engagement.

Julia Doverholt, Communications and Engagement Lead, says, "Our Edinburgh and Galashiels Sitel sites use Each Person / Epoints as our main incentives platforms. Having a relatively large number of employees on our sites alone mean that incentives can be used to better retain employees and improve productivity and motivation. The incentives are sometimes used within the individual teams and are often performance-based, whether tangible or intangible. We also provide incentives for employee birthdays and service awards and as part of employee engagement activities to create a close-knit community and make sure our associates feel valued.

Each Person and Epoints tie in well to these areas and also offers our employees a way to earn cash back, take advantage of deals and show appreciation to our peers.

Employees are using the platform more and more, even when there is no balance in their accounts, in order to purchase gift cards and products as a way to save money. The option of donating trees is also a plus and something that our Environmental Team, in particular, has embraced".

Mitz Patel, Head of Projects, Prezzo says

"We have an incredibly passionate and hardworking team of people. Working in the hospitality industry can be challenging, and our employees are integral to overcoming these hurdles. To ensure our customers leave with a smile and make memories, we understand how crucial it is for our employees to feel valued & looked after."

Save Time With The Real-Time HR Dashboard

Here at Each Person, we believe it's our responsibility to give you total visibility of how the program has landed within your business. View in real-time how your teams recognise and reward each other. Every interaction is tracked and shared in your HR dashboard, highlighting where improvements need to be made in your scheme's education or communication. With-time data, you can simplify processes to make the platform completely functional for your business.

On the dashboard, you can report on:

- 1 Why and what recognition is happening across all teams
- 2 Number of peer-to-peer & manager-to-peer Ecards are being sent
- 3 Nomination activity, winners & reasonings
- 4 Important dates, including long service & birthdays
- 5 Budgets spent across managers to co-workers & across teams
- 6 Logins to the Shop, who is using their Epoints
- 7 & so much more!

Each Person is totally configurable, so you have complete control of sensitive information & decision of who sees what. We also offer report training so that you can get the most out of the platform.

The Best Value Solution for Employers

Here at Each Person, we pride ourselves in being fully transparent with our pricing model so there are no hidden costs. The Each Person platform costs £2 per month per employee. As an employer, you will also typically save 30% of your tax bill by sending rewards to your employees with tax-free gifting. Plus, you will also receive an extra 10% on your rewards budget on top of what you buy.

Holly Ferrari, the Senior HR Advisor at Allegis

"Our employees work incredibly hard to deliver opportunities for our clients, candidates and each other. The human resources industry is highly competitive, and our people are integral to the company's success. We understand that to connect people to the right places, we first need to connect to our own people."

West London
NHS Trust

Our Client, West London NHS Trust

Each Person has been working with West London NHS Trust since 2022 & has rolled out the platform across their 4000 employees.

Deputy Director of Workforce Organisational Development Ali

Webster says, "I would absolutely recommend Each Person to NHS professionals. I think the platform has transformed reward and recognition for our organisation. So I'd recommend that other NHS Trusts start getting involved with this. It's simple to use, and people love it, even if you're not really IT savvy. What I love about it is people have bought into the concept quickly, it's starting to change our culture, and if we could spread that across the whole of the NHS, it would be a better place to work."

The Each Person team are great to work with and really responsive.

When we come up with ideas, we've been able to put them into practice quickly, and that's important that the platform and the team evolve in line with our business needs.

We chose Each Person because I absolutely love it. For instance, when I send Ecard to somebody to say thank you for a fantastic job, it's just so easy to use when you get responses back, which I wasn't actually expecting. It has made a difference in the company, and I find that they'll actually send me a thank you card back to say thank you.

The automated platform is our most significant benefit since introducing Each Person. It enables us to do more things for our staff, for example, birthday cards so we always remember their date. For the national administrative day, we set up the nomination function, which has enabled us to recognise and value our administrators, as they were the forgotten heroes during the COVID pandemic.

Natalie Fawzy,
Head of Customer
Success at Each Person

Ali Webster
Deputy Director of Organisational
Development at West
London NHS Trust

It's great that we can have an easy way for staff to nominate them. We wouldn't have been able to do that without having the platform, which has taken away all of the administrative burdens from having such a system. So it's enabling us to do much more to make it a better workplace.

Jock Hutchinson, Senior Psychological Wellbeing Facilitator High Secure Services, explains "Each Person is straightforward to use. I think the key is that it is very accessible, takes a very minimum amount of time, and is accessible to everybody within the trust.

It has been very important to make sure employees at West London NHS Trust feel valued. I think, especially within the current climate, going through COVID and stuff, it's been nice to be able to send some praise, to send an Ecard for people to receive that and just then receive just such a lovely message from someone say, "Oh, thank you so much".

So it has been really important and effortless, but it makes such a difference.
