

G-Cloud 15 Terms of Business

30 January 2026

CyPro: Terms of Business

Definitions

(i) “CyPro” – CyPro Consulting Ltd: A UK Limited Company with Registration Number 14543659 and registered office Level 39, One Canada Square, Canary Wharf, London, E14 5AB.

(ii) “Client” – Client ABC: A UK Limited Company with Registration Number XXXXXXXX and registered office XXXXXXXX (the party contracting services from CyPro).

(iii) “Party and Parties” - CyPro and client may be referred to individually as a ‘Party’ and collectively as the ‘Parties’.

(iv) “Professional” - An individual working for or on-behalf of CyPro, providing billable services to the Client.

Section 1: Entire Agreement

1. The Agreement (comprising of these Terms of Business and the Statement of Work) constitutes the entire understanding and agreement between the Parties and supersedes all prior oral and written communications relating thereto. The terms of this Agreement may be amended, modified or changed (including changes in scope) only in writing when signed by both parties. If there is a conflict between the Terms of Business and the "Statement of Work" which precedes these Terms of Business, the Terms of Business shall prevail. Terms defined in the Statement of Work shall have the same meaning when used in these Terms of Business.

Section 2: Services

1. CyPro will provide the Services described in the Statement of Work in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the Agreement.
2. Either party may request changes to the Services or changes to any other aspect of the Agreement. Requests for changes must be supported by sufficient detail to enable the other party to assess the impact of the requested change on the cost, timetable and any other relevant aspect of the Agreement. Both parties agree to work together to consider and, if appropriate, agree any changes. Until a change is agreed in writing both parties will continue to act in accordance with the latest agreed version of the Agreement.

3. CyPro will use all reasonable efforts to carry out its obligations in accordance with any timetable referred to in the Statement of Work or otherwise specified by the Client or CyPro. However, unless both parties specifically agree otherwise in writing, all dates given by CyPro or specified by the Client, including dates contained in any timetable in the Statement of Work, are intended for planning and estimating purposes only and are not contractually binding.
4. Each party will name a representative who will be responsible for managing issues relating to the day-to-day performance of the Agreement, including meeting at regular intervals to discuss and minute the progress of the Services. The initial contacts are named in the Statement of Work.

Section 3: Client Responsibilities

1. CyPro delivery of the Services and the fees charged are dependent on (i) the Client undertaking the Client responsibilities as set out in the Statement of Work; (ii) the accuracy of the Assumptions as set out in the Statement of Work; (iii) the Client performing its obligations under this Agreement; (iv) the Client providing CyPro with such information as CyPro shall reasonably request to enable it to perform its obligations under this Agreement; and (v) the Client providing timely decisions and obtaining required management approvals.
2. The Client will provide CyPro and its personnel with full and prompt access at all reasonable times to the premises, directors and staff of the Client and its affiliates associated with the Service and to the other advisers to the Client. CyPro will also be given full access to data and information as it may reasonably require in order to perform the Services. In addition, the Client agrees to keep CyPro promptly informed of any material developments or proposals in relation to the business or operations of the Client and its affiliates where these may have an effect upon the Services.
3. The Client agrees that CyPro will be entitled to rely on all the Client’s decisions and approvals given in connection with the Services. Further, the Client understands that CyPro is relying on the information provided by or on behalf of the Client and the Client represents that such information is or will be true, accurate and complete. CyPro will not be liable for any loss, damage or expense arising from the Client’s failure or delay in supplying materials or inaccuracy in such materials.

4. All surveys, forecasts, projections and recommendations made in any report, presentation, letter or other materials provided by CyPro in connection with the Services are made by CyPro in good faith and on the basis of the information supplied to CyPro at the time. However, CyPro does not guarantee and CyPro takes no responsibility for their achievement or continuing applicability, because the actual outcome will depend on future events and circumstances and matters over which CyPro has no control, including the actions of the Client's management and staff. It will be the responsibility of the Client's management to make implementation decisions, if any, and to determine further courses of action with respect to any matters addressed in the Services provided by CyPro.
5. The Client and CyPro will each be responsible for ensuring that their respective staff involved with the Service have the appropriate skills and experience. If any of CyPro's or the Client's staff fail to perform as required additional or replacement staff will be provided as the other party may reasonably request.
6. Where our Professionals work on premises other than CyPro's premises the Client will ensure that such personnel are provided without charge with a suitable office environment and facilities including admin support, IT and network infrastructure access and support.
7. Where the Client is using third parties to provide information, materials or support for the Service, or is employing other suppliers whose work may affect CyPro's ability to perform the Services, the Client will be responsible for the management of such persons and their performance, including the timeliness and quality of their input and work.
8. Our Professionals will report directly to a nominated Client person, who will be responsible for providing appropriate management, supervision and quality assurance on their work. Accordingly, our Professionals will not be subject to CyPro's own quality control procedures other than through coaching, professional and personal support from our service delivery and coaching staff. The Client will honour holiday, training and other reasonable commitments for the Professional. Every effort will be made to notify you in advance of any such commitments and to minimise their impact on the Service.

Section 4: Intellectual Property Rights

1. CyPro shall own and retain all ownership and intellectual property rights in all its existing reports, materials, documentation, software, system interfaces, templates, methodologies and processes, and ideas, concepts and techniques that CyPro may use in connection with this Agreement.

2. CyPro hereby assigns to the Client copyright and related rights, patents, rights to inventions, trade-marks, trade names and domain names, rights in designs, rights in confidential information (including know-how and trade secrets) and any other intellectual property rights, in each case whether registered or unregistered in the Deliverables and in all other reports, materials, documentation, software, system interfaces, templates, methodologies and processes, and ideas, concepts and techniques that CyPro may develop under this Agreement.
3. The Client grants CyPro and its sub-contractors a revocable, non-transferable, non-exclusive licence during the terms of the Service to make use of the clients' intellectual and other property solely for the purpose of providing the Services and performing its obligations under the Statement of Work.
4. This Agreement will not prevent or restrict CyPro from providing services to other clients which are the same or similar to the Services or using for any purpose CyPro considers appropriate any techniques, ideas, concepts or know how gained or arising from the performance of the Services, subject to the obligations of confidentiality set out in Section 6.

Section 5: Payment of Fees

1. The Services may be provided on a "Time and Materials" or on a "Fixed Price" fee basis. The Statement of Work will state the applicable fee rates for Time and Materials charging or the applicable Fixed Price. Where the Statement of Work does not expressly state which charging basis applies the Time and Materials charging will apply.
2. Where Time and Materials charging applies, charges will be calculated on the basis of the time spent by CyPro Professionals in connection with performing the Services at their respective rates. The charges will also include time spent by personnel travelling which is in excess of their normal work journey time. A normal working day is 8 hours, exclusive of travel and subsistence.
3. Where Time and Materials charging applies, prior to the invoice being created the Client and CyPro will agree the time spent for each individual Professional against which the fees for that period will be calculated.
4. If CyPro incurs extra costs or the scope of the Services is increased by any delay, variation, interruption or suspension of work arising from the default or instructions of the Client and/or those persons for which the Client is responsible, and provided CyPro will advise the Client of such extra costs or increased scope as soon as reasonably practical on becoming aware of them (and where reasonably practicable before any extra costs are incurred), then CyPro may increase the Fixed Price to reflect such extra costs properly incurred or increased scope and the Client will pay the increased Fixed Price.

5. Any estimate given by CyPro of any charge or fees, whether for planning or any other purpose, is given in good faith but will not be binding or constitute a fixed estimate, but for the avoidance of doubt it is agreed that the Fixed Price is not an estimate.
6. All charges are exclusive of out of pocket expenses unless the Statement of Work states otherwise. The Client agrees to pay expenses incurred from travel and subsistence, and on goods and services purchased on the Client's behalf, which will be billed at cost. Any special expense arrangements including an estimated expenses cap, will be agreed and set out in the Statement of Work.
7. Invoices will be issued in accordance with the payment plan set out in the Statement of Work, monthly in advance on the first day of each month. Unless the Statement of Work states otherwise, all payments will be in Pounds Sterling. All invoices will be due for payment within 30 days of receipt by the Client. If the Client disputes any portion of an invoice it shall notify CyPro within 7 days of receipt of the disputed invoice and pay the undisputed portion of that invoice. Should any invoice remain unpaid for more than 7 days from the due date CyPro reserves the right, without prejudice to any other right or remedy, to suspend the provision of the Services or any part and/or to charge interest and recovery costs in accordance with the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 on amounts overdue until payment is received in full.

Section 6: Confidentiality

1. Subject to clause 6.2, each party agrees where it is in possession of information about or relating specifically to the other and/or any Affiliates of the other (including its/their business) that is by its nature confidential, or is designated as such (whether in writing or orally) by the other or ought reasonably to be regarded as such including this Agreement ("Confidential Information"), it shall (i) keep it confidential; (ii) use it only in connection with performing its obligations and/or exercising its rights under this Agreement; and (iii) not to disclose it to any other person without the other's prior written consent. The undertaking by CyPro under this clause 6.1 applies to information about or relating specifically to the Client and/or any of its Affiliates (including its/their business) comprised in the Deliverables which shall be deemed to be and is designated as the Confidential Information of the Client. CyPro shall use Confidential Information of the Client solely for the purpose of performing the Services under this Agreement.

2. The undertakings under this clause 6.1 will not apply to a party in relation to information to the extent that that party can show that such information is or becomes generally publicly available for reasons not due to that party's default, was possessed by that party without any obligation of confidence prior to this Agreement (or prior to being designated as Confidential Information), or is lawfully acquired by that party from a third party who is under no obligation of confidence, or which is or has been developed by that party independently of this Agreement.
3. Nothing in this Agreement will prevent either party from being entitled to disclose Confidential Information to its legal advisors, to protect its own legitimate interests and to comply with any legal, professional or regulatory requirement. You agree to reimburse any reasonable costs we may incur in complying with any such disclosure requirement relating to any of our Services to you imposed in any proceedings or regulatory process not involving any substantive claim or proceeding against us, provided that we notify you promptly and, where reasonably or legally possible, prior to disclosure.
4. You agree that we may share Confidential Information with any subcontractors we use to provide the Services (or more generally to support our office administration) on the understanding that they will treat the information as Confidential Information in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. We shall ensure that each sub-contractor complies with the obligations imposed on CyPro under clause 6 as if it were CyPro.
5. Either party may disclose Confidential Information, and the Client and its Affiliates may disclose information comprised in any of the Deliverables which it would otherwise not be entitled to disclose but for this Clause 6.5, that it is required to disclose by law or any competent regulatory body or recognised investment exchange provided that, so far as is practicable and lawful, the disclosure shall be made only after consultation with the other party and after taking into account the other party's reasonable requirements as to timing, content and manner of communication.
6. Nothing in this Agreement will prevent or restrict CyPro from providing services to other clients (including services which are the same or similar to the Services) or using or sharing for any purpose any knowledge, experience and skills used in, gained or arising from performing the Services to the Client even if those other clients' interests are in competition with your own provided that CyPro complies with clause 6.1 and does not infringe any Intellectual Property Rights of the Client. Equally, you agree that to the extent that we possess information obtained under an obligation of confidentiality to another client or other third party, we are not obliged to disclose it to you or make use of it for your benefit, however relevant it may be to the Services.

7. Either party shall be able reference the other party's name for marketing purposes subject always to clause 6.1.

Section 7: Warranty

1. CyPro warrant that the Services will be performed with reasonable care in a diligent and competent manner. CyPro will re-perform on the terms of this Agreement any work which is not in compliance with this warranty without further liability for such non-compliance, provided that the Client gives CyPro written notice of any non-compliance within fourteen days (14) after the Services are performed.
2. CyPro does not warrant and shall not be responsible for any third party products or services. Your sole and exclusive rights and remedies with respect to claims arising out of or relating to any third party product or services will be against the third party and not against us. We do agree, however, to assign to you any assignable warranties we may receive from any such third party.
3. The representations, warranties, terms and conditions set out in this Agreement are the parties' only representations, warranties, terms and conditions relating to the Services and are made expressly in place of and to the exclusion (to the fullest extent permitted by law) of all other representations, warranties, terms and conditions, express or implied, by statute or otherwise, including without limitation any implied warranties, terms or conditions as to performance, fitness for a particular purpose, merchantability, satisfactory quality or otherwise and are subject to the limitations on liability set out herein.

Section 8: Risk Allocation and Indemnity

1. Neither party excludes or limits any liability for: a) fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; b) death or personal injury caused by its negligence or that of its employees, agents or subcontractors; c) breach of any other liability which cannot be limited or excluded by applicable law.
2. CyPro shall not be liable to the Client to the extent that a liability arises as a result of an action or omission by the Client with respect to the Services, for example a failure to follow CyPro's instructions or advice or a modification to work done by CyPro which was not done following CyPro's instruction or recommendation.
3. Further, and excluding any costs which CyPro may incur in correcting any non-compliance in accordance with Section 7 of these Terms of Business, CyPro agree that the maximum liability to CyPro, its directors, employees and agents (in contract or tort or under statute or otherwise) for any losses suffered by CyPro arising out of or in connection with the Services, however caused, and including any consequential or punitive losses, shall be limited as set out in the following paragraph.

4. The total aggregate liability of CyPro for all damages, losses or other liabilities occurring in connection with this Agreement shall be limited to 5 (five) times annual fees paid by the Client.
5. CyPro shall have in effect and maintain for the duration of the agreement and for a period of five (5) years thereafter, a policy or policies of insurance covering all the risks which may be incurred by CyPro arising out of the acts or omissions of CyPro or its personnel in connection with this Agreement. Such policies shall include professional indemnity insurance with cover (for a single event or series of related events) of no less than £1,000,000 per year.
6. Each party agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the other party for itself and as trustee for each of, that party's directors and employees against all claims and proceedings brought by any third party and all losses, damages, costs and expenses relating thereto, whatsoever and howsoever caused, which that party, its directors and employees, or any of them, may suffer arising from, or in connection with, the provision of the Services, except and only to the extent finally determined to have resulted primarily from the indemnified party's knowing disregard of matters of which it has actual knowledge, or from bad faith or wilful default.
7. Because of the importance to our work of the information and representations supplied to us by the directors, employees and agents of the Client, CyPro shall not, save to the extent that the law requires otherwise, be held responsible or liable for any loss, damage, cost, expense or other consequences (together "losses") whatsoever and howsoever, caused, incurred, sustained or arising if information material to CyPro work is withheld or concealed from CyPro or misrepresented to CyPro, except and only to the extent finally determined to have resulted from CyPro knowing disregard of matters of which CyPro have actual knowledge, or from our bad faith or wilful default.
8. Any action brought by the Client against CyPro must be brought within twelve (12) months after the cause of action arises.

Section 9: Personnel

1. Whilst CyPro will attempt to comply with the Client's request for specific individuals, the appointment of all personnel to perform the Services and the nature and duration of their assignment shall be made as CyPro considers appropriate. CyPro may at any time replace or reassign any personnel assigned by it to the Services but any replacement personnel appointed by CyPro will be no less experienced or qualified than those personnel they are replacing and will be subject to the prior approval of the Client, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

2. CyPro agree that, having regard to CyPro interest in limiting the personal liability and exposure to litigation of employees, CyPro will not bring any claim in respect of losses against any of CyPro employees personally.
3. CyPro may sub-contract the provision of the Services or any part to any person including associated partners and companies, but such sub-contracting will not relieve CyPro from its obligations under this Agreement and CyPro accepts that it takes full responsibility for the actions of such sub-contractors.

Section 10: Termination

1. The Agreement may be terminated by either party on written notice in the event (i) the other party fails to comply with the terms of the Agreement and the failure, if capable of remedy, is not remedied within 30 days following receipt of written notice specifying the failure; or (ii) the other party is unable to pay its debts or has a receiver, administrator, administrative receiver or liquidator appointed or calls a meeting of its creditors or ceases for any other reason to carry on business or in the reasonable opinion of the other party any of these events appears likely.
2. If CyPro Services are terminated pursuant to this Clause 10 before completion of the Services all fees for time spent and expenses incurred by CyPro in accordance with the Statement of Work up to the date of termination will be due and payable within 30 days of receipt of an invoice from CyPro by the Client and where the services are on a Fixed Price basis, if CyPro and the Client are unable to agree the fees payable in the event of such early termination the Client will pay CyPro all sums due at the date of termination in accordance with the payment plan set out in the Statement of Work together with fees on a Time and Materials basis for Services provided during the termination notice period up to the date of termination.
3. Except for matters related to confidentiality or intellectual property rights, the parties will first attempt to resolve any dispute or alleged breach internally by escalating it through management, and, prior to pursuing litigation, use a mutually acceptable alternative dispute resolution process.
4. Termination by either party pursuant to this Clause 10 will not affect rights and obligations which have already accrued to the parties hereunder prior to the termination.

Section 11: General

1. Neither party shall be liable for any delays or failures in performance due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control.
2. The benefit of this Agreement may not be assigned or otherwise transferred without the prior express written consent of the other party, save that CyPro may assign the benefit of this Agreement to an affiliate of its international organisation, and may use subcontractors to provide the Services.
3. Any notices given pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing, addressed to the relevant contact at the address of the relevant party set forth in this Agreement, and shall be considered given when delivered at that address.
4. No term shall be deemed waived, and no breach of this Agreement excused, unless the waiver or consent is in writing signed by the party granting such waiver or consent.
5. This Agreement does not make either party an agent or legal representative of the other party, and does not create a partnership or joint venture. Both parties are independent contractors and principals for their own accounts.
6. If any provision or part of this Agreement is determined to be illegal or unenforceable, such provision or part will be deemed not to form part of this Agreement but the remainder of the Agreement will remain in full force and effect to the fullest extent permitted by law.
7. Any provision of this Agreement which by its nature extends beyond the expiry or termination of the arrangements set out in this Agreement will survive such expiration or termination.
8. Save in respect of any assignee of CyPro pursuant to the provisions of subsection (3) above, nothing in this Agreement shall confer any rights on any third party not being CyPro or the Client. For the avoidance of doubt, any rights conferred on third parties pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 shall be excluded.
9. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and the parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts to settle any disputes which may arise out of or in connection with this Agreement.
