Cloud Security, Risk, And Assurance

This category supports organisations operating under heightened security, regulatory, or public accountability requirements. Buyers often need to balance innovation with assurance, without defaulting to risk-averse stagnation.

We embed security and risk management into cloud design and operations, rather than treating them as bolt-ons. Our services cover architecture, controls, assurance activities, and audit readiness, aligned to recognised standards and government expectations.

The outcome is improved security posture, clearer risk ownership, and stronger assurance for stakeholders. Clients are able to move faster with confidence, supported by evidence-based controls and defensible security decisions.

Secure Cloud Configuration And Hardening

Cloud Security, Risk, and Assurance

This service helps organisations improve cloud security by applying secure configuration and hardening practices. Wiz Digital supports the implementation of security baselines and configuration standards that reduce misconfiguration risk, strengthen protection of cloud resources, and align environments with organisational and public sector security expectations.

Service Overview

- Definition of secure configuration baselines
- Application of cloud platform hardening controls
- Network, service, and workload configuration hardening
- Identity and access hardening measures
- Alignment with recognised security benchmarks
- Identification and correction of misconfigurations
- Validation of secure configurations
- Handling of justified configuration exceptions
- Assurance and readiness checks
- Clear secure configuration documentation

Service Features

- Reduced exposure to configuration-related security risks
- Improved security posture across cloud environments
- Better protection of data and workloads
- Improved compliance with security standards
- Reduced likelihood of preventable incidents
- Improved audit and assurance confidence
- Consistent and repeatable security configurations
- Reduced future remediation effort
- Increased confidence in cloud security
- Sustainable foundation for secure cloud operations
