Cloud Security, Risk, And Assurance

This category supports organisations operating under heightened security, regulatory, or public accountability requirements. Buyers often need to balance innovation with assurance, without defaulting to risk-averse stagnation.

We embed security and risk management into cloud design and operations, rather than treating them as bolt-ons. Our services cover architecture, controls, assurance activities, and audit readiness, aligned to recognised standards and government expectations.

The outcome is improved security posture, clearer risk ownership, and stronger assurance for stakeholders. Clients are able to move faster with confidence, supported by evidence-based controls and defensible security decisions.

Microsoft Defender And Sentinel Enablement

Cloud Security, Risk, and Assurance

This service supports organisations enabling Microsoft Defender and Microsoft Sentinel for cloud security monitoring. Wiz Digital designs architectures, integrations, and operational approaches that improve threat detection and response while aligning security monitoring with organisational governance and public sector assurance expectations.

Service Overview

- Design of Microsoft Defender and Sentinel architectures
- Definition of security monitoring and detection use cases
- Planning of log sources and data ingestion
- Integration with cloud platforms and services
- Design of alerting and incident response workflows
- Configuration of threat detection and analytics
- Alignment with security operations models
- Guidance on tuning and noise reduction
- Validation of operational readiness
- Clear enablement documentation and handover

Service Features

- Improved visibility of security threats and events
- Faster and more effective incident detection
- Better coordination of security response activities
- Reduced alert noise and false positives
- Improved coverage of cloud security monitoring
- Stronger alignment with governance requirements
- Improved investigation and response capability
- Increased confidence in security monitoring
- Scalable approach to cloud security operations
- Sustainable foundation for security monitoring capabilities
