

Macgregor Editorial

Pricing document

1. Overview

This pricing document sets out the standard rates for data analysis, data extraction and related services provided by Macgregor Editorial Ltd. All pricing is indicative and may be refined for specific Call-Off Contracts or Statements of Work.

2. Standard Pricing

- Standard Hourly Rate: £50 per hour (excluding VAT)
- Standard Day Rate (up to 8 hours): £400 per day (excluding VAT)

These rates apply to new engagements unless a bespoke agreement is made. Existing contractual rates with current clients will continue to apply unless mutually revised.

3. Flexibility for Smaller Engagements

Bespoke pricing may be agreed on an hourly or fixed-price basis below the standard rates on a case-by-case basis.

4. What the Pricing Includes

The above rates include:

- Delivery of data analysis and extraction work
- Email support during office hours
- Secure handling of client data
- Return or deletion of data at project completion

5. Additional Charges

There are no additional charges for:

- Onboarding
- Offboarding
- Basic reporting

Any optional or extended work will be quoted in advance and agreed before commencement.

6. Expenses

No expenses are anticipated for remote work. Any required travel or on-site activity will be discussed and agreed in advance, and charged at cost.

7. Invoicing and Payment Terms

Invoices are issued on completion of work or monthly for ongoing projects. Payment terms are 30 days from invoice date unless otherwise agreed.

8. VAT

Macgregor Editorial Ltd is VAT registered. All prices stated above are exclusive of VAT, which will be applied at the prevailing rate.
