

The whatimpact platform is governed by standard terms and conditions, which define the rights and responsibilities of all platform users, including VCSEs, public sector bodies, and suppliers accessing or operating within the platform.

The full terms and conditions are available at:

<https://whatimpact.com/terms-conditions/>

The data dashboard provided to public sector clients operates as a data insights and monitoring platform hosted on Amazon Web Services (AWS).

During the contract period, the public sector client has full access to the data generated for their use and may download this data in its entirety for reporting, analysis, planning, and internal use.

Whatimpact retains all intellectual property rights relating to the platform, its underlying technology, data structures, templates, methodologies, and system architecture. These are protected under applicable intellectual property laws.

Any data that the public sector client commissions, generates, or pays for through use of the platform may be freely used by the client for their own communications, reporting, evaluation, and strategic planning purposes, subject to the terms set out in the platform terms and conditions.