The Challenge

Traditional Time Tracking

- Manual spreadsheets and paper timesheets
- Data silos and compliance gaps
- Administrative overhead and errors
- Lack of real-time visibility
- Complex approval processes
- Audit trail limitations

Business Impact

Inaccurate Cost Data

Unable to attribute time correctly to projects and departments

Compliance Risk

Insufficient audit trails for FOI requests and reviews

Resource Waste

Staff time spent on manual data entry and reconciliation

Public sector organizations need accurate, auditable workforce time management
