Service Introduction

Organisations are increasingly looking towards cloud capabilities to deliver their business goals. Additionally for some customers public Cloud presents too much risk and a sovereign offering is preferred to manage and host data within country. While migrating to the cloud has significantly transformed many businesses, the journey to the cloud is daunting. Without effective strategy, plan and execution skills organisations may be unable to achieve their strategic goals.

Our onshore service offers guidance to assess, define, enable, assure and manage your move to public or sovereign cloud. We provide specialist in-depth knowledge of UK Government, commodity services and cloud technologies. We offer clear, unambiguous advice and guidance that can be understood and implemented at all decision levels. We provide specialist in-depth knowledge of UK Government, sovereign services, commodity services and cloud technologies.
