1.0 Scope of our services

The provision of joined up or integrated healthcare is critical to the sustainability of the NHS, delivering the best care in the most appropriate location for patients and joining up the various organisations that provide care to patients. The integration of data from disparate systems to ensure the care giver has the right information at the point of care is a critical enabler to the transformation of local health services. We have significant experience in integrating systems data.

The service incorporates a methodology that facilitates the integration of disparate systems to support smooth exchange of information.

The significant experience of our team includes:

- Defining and developing an integration approach and strategy
- Managing end to end integration for EPR/EMR deployments
- Interface development and validation
- In-depth knowledge of Cerner FSI, HIE, Mirth, Rhapsody & Ensemble products
- Experience with healthcare standards - FIHR & HL7

The outcomes we have successfully delivered for our customers include:

- Delivery of Integration services on time and within budget
- Seamless transition of 3rd party systems from legacy to new systems
