

Is Your Data AI-Ready?

CONTACT US

You want to unlock the power of AI, but your data is scattered across multiple systems. This makes it impossible to get the full picture, hindering your ability to build effective AI models. Our team will help you ingest, centralise, and prepare your data, building a scalable Data Platform on Google Cloud that serves as the essential foundation for your future AI initiatives.

Unlock AI Powered Insights

A centralised data hub will be the fuel for AI, to help you increase productivity and enable accurate data-driven decisions.

Scalable Foundation for AI

Establish a secure foundation for your data with a scalable platform that is ready to handle the AI advancements you want to make.

Govern Your Data for AI

Gain complete authority over your data with granular access controls, ensuring data quality and security for all your AI applications.

- Data Source Workshop: The Workshop helps you understand the mechanism for moving data from the sources and plan a smooth transition to Google Cloud with your AI goals in mind.
- AI-Ready Platform Design: A low-level design document detailing the data sources, transfer mechanisms, and the specific cloud configuration required to build your AI foundation.
- Platform Deployment: Our Engineering team will deploy the core data platform, and expertly stitch together the data sources and platform to ingest your data and create an AI-ready repository.
- Data Transformation Planning: We'll work with you to analyse the raw data in your new platform and create a strategic plan for transforming it into high-quality, usable data sets ready for analysis and machine learning.

WHAT YOU GET

Netpremacy will work with you to better understand the needs and requirements of your Data Platform through deployment planning and analysis of data to ensure your Platform will be tailored to your needs and AI Goals.
