

AWS Migration Services

Transform your business with seamless cloud migration

AWS Migration Services with Telefónica Tech

Our AWS Migration Services offering is designed to help businesses efficiently and securely transition their workloads and applications to Amazon Web Services (AWS). This comprehensive service encompasses a range of migration strategies, including rehosting, replatforming, and refactoring, tailored to meet your specific business goals. Telefónica Tech provides end-to-end support throughout the migration lifecycle - from initial assessment and planning to execution, optimisation, and ongoing management. This includes access to specialised programmes such as the Migration Acceleration Program (MAP), Optimisation and Licensing Assessment (OLA), and the One Government Value Agreement (OGVA) for public sector client.

Clients benefit from enhanced agility and innovation, enabling faster deployment and improved adaptability in dynamic markets. Cost efficiencies are achieved through pay-as-you-go scalability, eliminating the need for physical infrastructure and reducing licensing overhead. The service also ensures robust security with advanced protection and compliance certifications, while delivering superior performance through faster data access and reduced latency. Telefónica Tech's proven expertise and UK-based support teams offer reassurance and continuity, making the migration journey smooth and strategically aligned with your long-term objectives.

Benefits:

Agility and Innovation: Accelerate deployment and drive market adaptability.

Cost Efficiencies: Save on infrastructure with pay-as-you-go scalability.

Scalability: Dynamically adjust resources to meet demand.

Enhanced Security: Advanced protection and compliance certifications safeguard your data.

Improved Performance: Faster data access and superior reliability.
